

Our Journey Home

Our Journey and the Grand Deception Transcription Presentation by George Kavassilas March 21, 2009

Part 1: Our Journey

The discussion we're having here today has to do with me sharing information to the greater community about experiences that I've had, and the understandings and the knowledge that I've come to know over a period of a great number of years obviously. And the experiences I've had are really, well, to put it simply, are really "out there" for a lot of people. They're quite vast and varied, and it's given me the opportunity to see this reality from many different perspectives; many different layers. From layers within what we refer to as "the veil", or "the illusion", or, it's got many terms and also from outside the veil. I've taken many journeys beyond this reality, and those journeys have not just ... the destination hasn't been on one level. It has been on many levels beyond this reality.

I'd just like to preface the talk now by reading this out, because we like to express things, but there are some people who just nail it. A good, dear friend of mine, Naomi, nailed it. So, I'll just read this paragraph to you because it sums it up:

"The only thing we as individuals can really and truly teach from is the foundation of our wisdom and our own truth. To teach from anything else—this includes all belief systems, religions, philosophies, doctrines, etcetera, is to be a disperser of knowledge, not a real teacher. Every single person on this planet has something to teach. There are no exceptions. To truly teach is to trust that your own unique knowing is worthy of being taught. Therein lies the meaning of our existence here: to shine and to teach. All belief systems, religions, philosophies, doctrines, etcetera, have flourished and remained in place for so long because we as a race have found it easier to spread that knowledge...."

"To be or not to be..." that's what Shakespeare was saying.

"...not the true, untapped knowledge of our own heart, our own sovereignty, our own godliness, a godliness that we were never separated from. When will we awaken and realize that the only knowledge worth truly teaching is what we know? Who we are and what experience has taught us—anything else, anything adopted, is attaching us to something that keeps us from knowing our true self. Yes, we will see ourselves and resonate with the teachings and knowledge of others; however, in this life, to fully express the entire spectrum of our own godliness is to teach from our own unique spirit, the very spirit that is connected to all that is.”

And I think that pretty much sums up the message that I want to begin with. The body of knowledge that I’m sharing with you here today is, the vast majority of it is my own experiences, and that’s where it’s coming from. I’m not going to stand here and regurgitate other people’s work. I’ll reference some things, but not the whole lot.

So, I’ll begin with an experience that I had in 2003 where I found myself being picked up and taken by a group of beings who were familiar to me, it was like a family, and took me to a place, which was not of this world. And when I met these people, I knew they were family. It wasn’t like a negative abduction experience or anything like that. And then I found myself ... they were preparing for me to go through this individual process where I left my body, and not on an astral level, there’s different levels you can leave your body. There are different types of consciousness that you can access from your being and leave your body and then travel around. The most common one people know is astral traveling. You can travel in what some people term the “etheric” level, but this was my full-blown consciousness. Everything came out of my body, and I was pure consciousness, which is the omnipresent part of our being where we can just go anywhere and do anything.

And so I traveled up through the dimensions of the Universe, and I went through all the different levels, and then I came back. And when I came back, I couldn’t stop laughing. I just couldn’t stop laughing because prior to me actually leaving the body and taking the journey, I still had a lot of the lower ego attached. And when I came back and realized what’s really going on around here, I just couldn’t stop laughing. It was hilarious! And the laughter was, I’ve never laughed like that before, it was so deep and joyous.

So, I’m going to begin this first part of the talk, because we’re going to have three parts to it, and the first part will be where I’ll discuss the structure of the Universe. And I’ve done this before, but there are some subtle changes, because the journey that I’ve had over the last few years. Once I started awakening and coming into my own power and becoming my own being, other beings took notice of that, and the first thing they wanted to do was to take me and manipulate me. To make sure that when I speak, I wouldn’t speak “The Universal Truth” because really, there is only one truth. I know “all truths are relative” as people say, but only small truths are relative. There is only one Universal Truth as to what’s going on. So that is what the controlling faction, if you want to put it that way, doesn’t want you to achieve, and to know, and to understand.

So the other thing is, this knowledge I’m sharing with you here today is not anything new to any of you. You will know everything that I share with you, it’s just you’ve forgotten it, so really all I’m doing is providing a trigger here for you to re-remember because all of this knowledge is inside of you. Every body's got it. You’ve just forgotten it because that’s part of the separation journey, but now we’re at the time in the cycle where it’s time for us to re-remember who we truly are deep down inside and why we came here, and where we all come from, and where we’re all headed. And that’s what I’ll explain here today.

In the second part of the talk, I will get into what we call “The Grand Deception”. It’s really profound. The magnitude of it is really great. What is about to be played out here on the planet now is quite a “Hollywood blockbuster” theme. It really is. It is profound what’s about to take place, and my objective here today is to inform people with my experiences so they have a point of reference, you know? The more points of reference you have, the greater your ability to make better decisions for yourselves, okay? So this is all about empowering you with knowledge, with understanding, with perspective. And in the third part I’ll do a little bit of numbers. I’m not going to get into the numbers too much today, but they are really profound. And then we’ll have lots of question time as well, in the third part, okay? So that’s the structure of today. So, the first part will go for about an hour, maybe a little bit more.

All right, so what I discovered when I went through the dimensions of the Universe was, and I will say just one more thing: The beings that tried to manipulate me ... I know you’re all aware of a group called “The Galactic Federation of Light.” Now in 2004, I did a series of lectures, and that video footage has been doing the rounds on the Internet as many of you are aware. I will explain exactly who the Galactic Federation of Light is, because there’s the “Real Light” and then there’s the “False Light”, and what we are about to experience on this planet, and it’s already happening is the False Light. We’ve got to get through that first to get to the True Light. We all wanted this experience. It’s like a test. It’s like, everybody incarnated at this time to achieve this graduation process, if you wanted it. So this is going to filter out who’s really connected to the core of the Universe, and who’s not. Whoever decides to go on their ships when they turn up ... there is no right and wrong, okay, that is the right journey for each person who goes on those ships. It just means they wish to stay here a little bit longer, not here on this planet, but in the lower universes a little bit longer, and they will go through in the next cycle. If they don’t go through in that one, they’ll go through on the next one. So there is no right and wrong; it’s just what’s appropriate for each person. There is no judgment here in that way, okay? And I went through this model of the Universe in 2004, and that structure that I drew is a replica of the real Universe, so I was being manipulated, and I couldn’t express myself properly. So, now I’ll draw that Universal Structure again and there may be some similarities, but I will just explain the differences too.

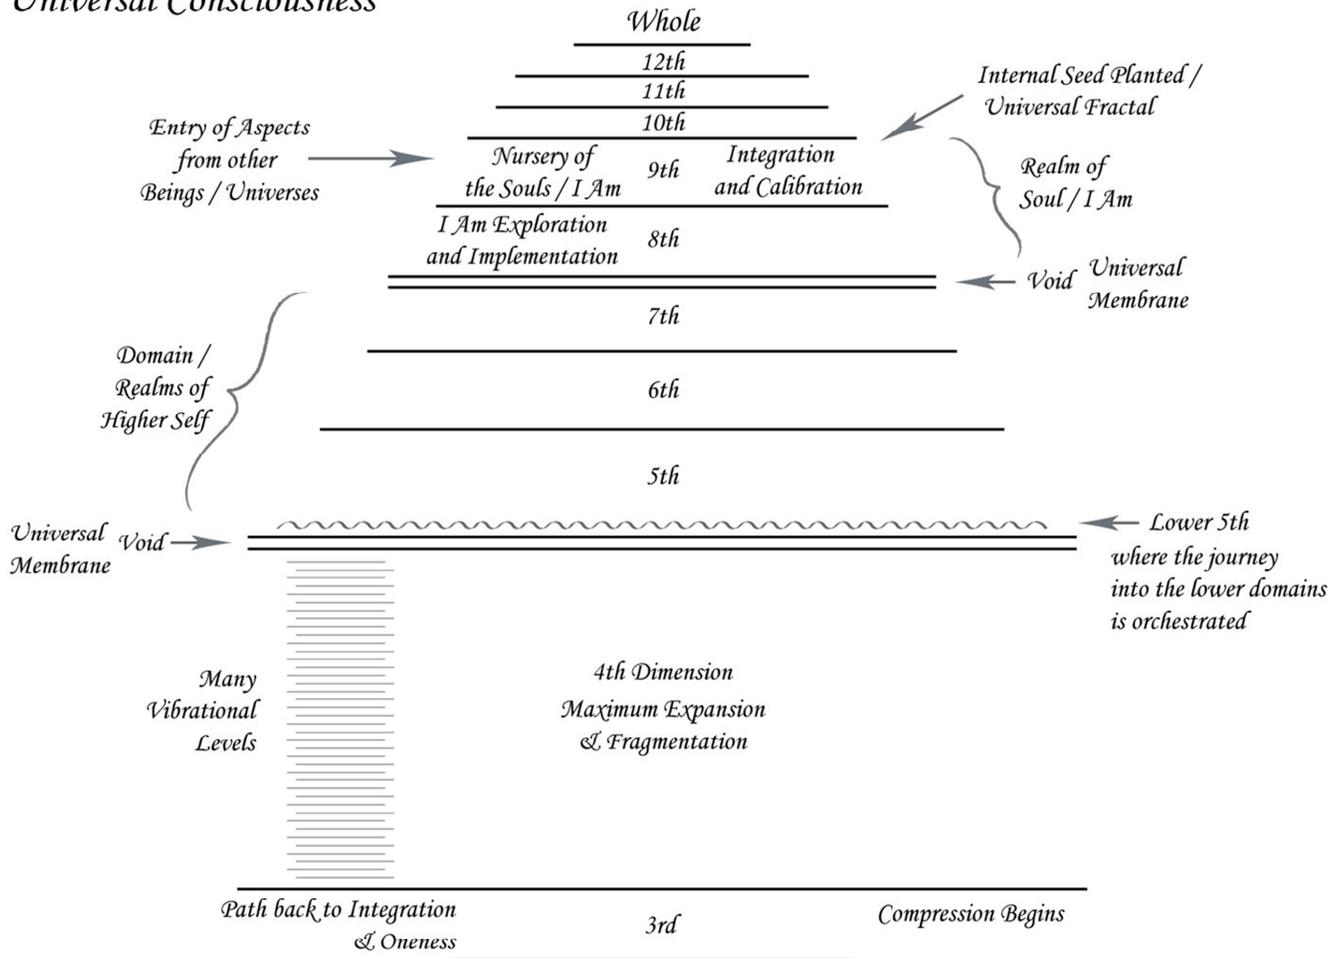

So, let’s say that here on Earth, as you know we have all been in what is referred to as the 3rd dimension. I’ll put a line there [bottom of 3rd dimension] because it blends in, but you know ... there are lines. Above that, we’ve got the 4th dimension. Now, the 4th dimension in physical size is the largest that exists, in actual physical size because of the amount of separation that took place. This area is what is deemed the “zone of freewill” [3rd and 4th dimension].

Then we have a thick Universal membrane between the 4th and the 5th. Now, the reason that was created was for protection on a Universal level. It is part of the Divine Plan; it’s part of the Creation structure, because “evil” does not exist above here [Universal membrane]. So, evil only exists, what you call evil, it’s the concept, right? I’m just using our labels that we’re familiar with, evil only exists below this level [The 5th dimension], okay? Above here [Universal membrane] this is what is known as “heaven”. In religious terms, what you experience here on this level, the level of life here is so beautiful. Everything is in harmony. It is amazing. Now this realm of the 5th dimension exists on this planet too, and you know it as Avalon or Shambhala or Shangri-La. It’s got lots of names.

Then we have the 6th and 7th, between the 7th and 8th there is another Universal membrane. Then we have the 9th, and then it goes the 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th. These [3rd and 4th dimension] are the ones that you really want to know about, and I will explain why. When I went up, I experienced a whole lot, and then I came back down. What I discovered was that all these dimensional levels are what we refer to as “Creation”. From inside this Universe (Universe = one verse) we think that’s Creation, as from your perspective here, but it’s not. Life is infinite. There’s no end to it as far as I can perceive. Even from right up in the top dimensions, from up there, I couldn’t perceive the end to life. It goes on and on and on.

Universal Consciousness

So, what I want to share with you is that this [entire Universe] is what we call “God”. It’s a being. Everything is a being: the planet is a being; the galaxy is a being; the tree is a being, [picks up a rock] this rock is a being. It’s consciousness experiencing itself and manifesting itself as such. Everything is life. This Universe we are inside of is a being, and I’m here to tell you there is life beyond God. So this is the being and creator of this Universe in all its dimensional levels, and that’s what we know as God. It is a being. But there is life beyond that. Remember that you know all of this inside of you, so I am not telling you anything new. I am just helping you to re-remember, that’s all. That is all I’m doing here, okay?

Now, think of yourselves beyond, because if this is here [circles entire universe], I want you to know that you also exist beyond God. And I want you to know that each and every one of you are Gods in your own right. Buddha, Jesus, and Krishna, everyone says, “Know ye not ye are Gods?” It doesn’t mean you are God of this Universe. What they are truly saying is you are Gods of your own Universes, but what you have done is you have come inside this Universe to experience life in this way, in this construct. This is what we refer to as a “waveform Universe”, [draws a sine wave] light, frequency, polarity. When you get to these higher realms, don’t forget this is heaven [5th dimension] compared to all this stuff down here [3rd and 4th dimensions]. People think that’s the Light of God; you have reached God. “Heaven”! It’s all over. No way! It goes on and on.

So, each and every one of you are Gods in your own right, but your construct, the way your Universe is constructed is not like this one. This is unique. Think of us all on the God level. So, we’re all hanging out. Each one of us is a God. You’ve got your own Universe happening. And so this God starts expressing itself in a new way, right? Everyone goes, “Now that’s cool! That is cool, I want me some of that!” So God said, “If you guys want to learn to be like me, then I’m going to come up and formulate something so you can learn how to be like me.” So, God created what’s called the “Grand Creation”, the “Divine Plan”, and the “Will of God”. And created a formula for everyone to enter inside that being and experience life in waveform structure.

Now, where you all entered this Universe is here on the 9th dimension. This is what is considered the “Nursery of the Souls”. Everybody enters on this level [9th dimension]. It is where everyone first experiences waveform or light; the “Light of God” and everybody come in and acclimatize on that level.

From there begins the journey, and you go into the 8th dimension. This is where you function on your own, but as pure energy. There’s no physical form, it’s just pure energy. And then once, just imagine now that none of this exists yet [dimensions below the 8th]. Okay, you’ve just entered, and you’re experiencing yourself on your own, because you’re held here in a stasis, and this is your Soul. Soul is the highest form of ego in existence. Everybody thinks here on Earth: ego, and everything just outside of that: no ego. That’s not true. You have ego on every single level all the way up to your Soul. Your Soul, what we call the “I AM Presence”, the highest connection you have with God, you are still your own identity. You have your own identity apart from the Source. It’s what makes you, you okay, because if you didn’t have that individual identity, you would not exist. So, just contemplate that.

So, this is the highest form of ego in existence is Soul, [refers to Universal Structure diagram] and that’s where it resides, [8th and 9th dimensions]. The “I AM Presence” extends itself down into here [bottom of 8th dimension], so that encapsulates these two dimensional levels. Then once all possibilities and outcomes were experienced by all of us on these levels, we then said, “Hey! We want to take this to the next level. This is fun. A lot of people are having fun. This is a good ride.” So God said, “Hang on because the next level from here, if you want to take this journey, is pretty full-on. It’s exhilarating and it’s fun, but its full-on. So let me just create a huge void as a protective membrane for me because I know what’s coming. “Because don’t forget, I know me, and you want to be like me, then look out, because there are traps involved with being like me.”

So everyone then went, “Yeah, we want some of that.”, and extended themselves down and that is the highest level of physical structure, the 7th dimension. If a being from here [4th dimension] turns up now on Earth, when it’s in the 3rd dimension, you just see a being of light, because it is vibrating higher than this frequency. Be aware of that. It doesn't mean it's a pure, loving being just because it does that.

So, once all possibilities and outcomes—because that was a big rush, going from pure energy to physical structure was a really huge rush for everybody; everyone loved it. Once all possibilities and outcomes were experienced there, everyone said, “Right. We're going to take this to the next level.” And so down again, and then the same again. And then we got to the 5th dimension, but once the lower vibrations of the 5th were beginning to be experienced, there were major differences of opinion that occurred between beings. There was still no killing, or death, or destruction, or anything like that, but we're talking major differences of opinion, and so the polarity started becoming really extreme. Beings started not liking other beings. Beings started wanting to control other beings. It was like, “Wait a minute. This isn't right.”, but when I say “control”, it's nothing like, you know, control here. Don't forget this is Heaven [5th dimension]. I remember in scriptures they said the Angels had a war in Heaven and all that. It was just differences of opinion.

So then God said, “The next journey down into the lower vibrations is going to be so profound, and so traumatic that once you enter that, there's only going to be one way out. Whoever wants to play this game; whoever wants to go on this roller coaster ride; I'm not stopping that roller coaster. Once you're on that ride, you're in it for the long haul.” And that's what you've all chosen.”

And a being popped up. Now the way God operates is: “Who wants to manage this? Who wants to run that? Who wants to be a part of it?” It's a participatory process. So this being puts its hand up and says, “I want to run one side of polarity, and I want it to be really full on. I want a being to be able to destroy another being. So let's make it really exhilarating, really intense, and really exciting.” And that's the being that you know as “Lucifer”.

In my other 2004 presentation, I said that Lucifer and Michael started up here [above the 9th dimension], but that's not true. That was where I was being manipulated. It starts here [4th dimension], and this is what I'm here to say today is that, the whole structure of the Universe has been replicated down here in the lower universes by beings of a much lower order, something to be very, very wary of. So, this is where the divisions' starts between dark and light, and that version of light is not what you think, either. That's conditional love. Conditions apply with that love. “You do as I say and I'll be nice to you, but if you cross my path, you'd better look out. I'll take you out.” That's conditional love. “As long as you do as I say, I'll be good to you.” It's imperialism.

So, this is the Lucifer energy here [one side of the 4th dimension], and this is the Michael energy here [opposite side of 4th dimension]. So, you can see the difference is quite big. This is what they do, this group of beings goes around and brainwashes everybody. I'm talking star systems out there, this is happening on a galactic level, not just here on Earth. As above, so below, you have got to understand that brainwashing and manipulation happens on a galactic level as well. And there's a lot of ETs—which I'll talk a lot about in the second part—that are in communication with our governments here on Earth, who belong to this structure, who are brainwashed. Has anyone ever spoken to a religious fanatic? They truly believe. Like, they truly believe. And you can open up some of these books in the New Age movement and you can read them, and the channelings and everything, and you can feel that there's a real genuine authenticity about what that person is saying, because they truly believe. The ETs who come and tell people and give them information, they truly believe. They're brainwashed too. They've being sucked into this empire.

I learned that the hard way. I went through the humiliation and the shame. I've stood up and I've said things, and I know I've said things in the past, and they haven't eventuated, and they haven't been true, and they haven't been right. But I'm having this journey so you can all learn from it. So I can stand up here and speak with authority and say, "I've lived this stuff. I've been deceived by them. I have been taken y them. I have even been tortured by them. These beings are not what they seem." I'll get into that later.

Now, once we got to this point here [4th dimension], this is what we think is "the zone of free will". Now, that's really important that I said think is the zone of free will, because this part of you here [5th dimension], what we refer to as the "Higher Self", which spans these three [5th, 6th and 7th dimensions]. And you can be omnipresent here; you can be in many places at once. You organized your whole journey down in these lower universes. Some people have been down here for eons of time. I've talked to beings who have been here from the beginning, when they were first created. Earth time: trillions, upon trillions, upon trillions, upon trillions, upon trillions times a trillion billion years ago, Earth-time equivalent. It's been a really long time. And a lot of people, you see it in their eyes, they're tired. "I've had enough. I want to go home." And it's true; a lot of us feel that way, don't we? We've had enough. We want to go home. Some of us haven't been down here for this long, and they're freaked out too, because the way life is down here in these lower vibrations is just too much. They don't like it at all. They haven't been down here long, and they're not used to all the bad things that go on down here. That's what was created, and it was a journey into vast separation never experienced before.

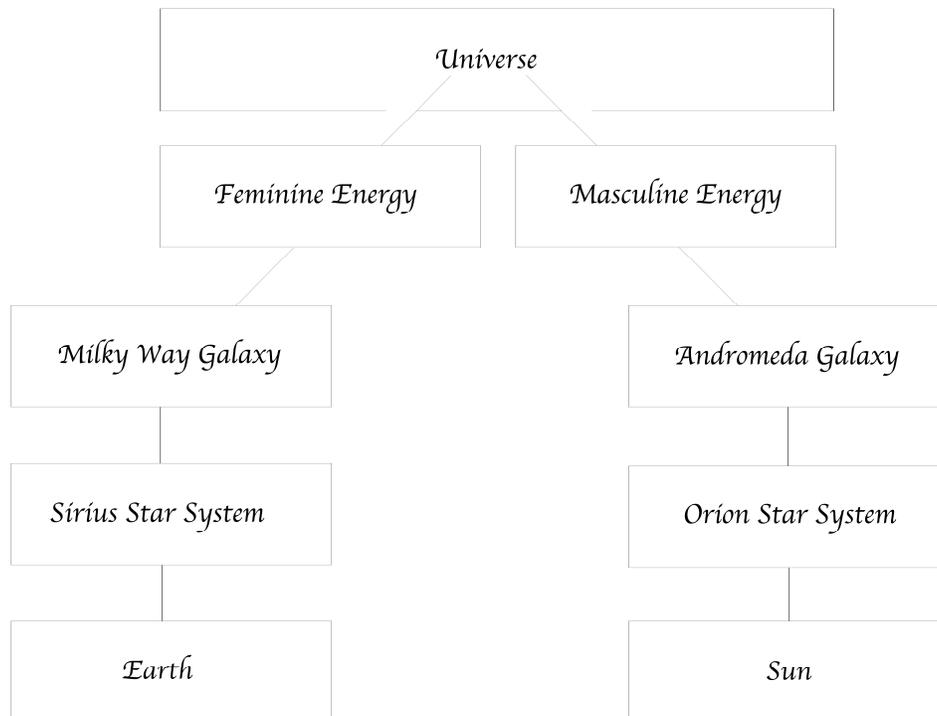

Now here's another big surprise for you. Each one of you who is incarnated on Earth here is actually a galaxy. Sounds pretty amazing, doesn't it? That is how beautiful each and every one of you is. All the beings that are incarnated here on the Earth at this time are also galaxies. Really, People will say "There are probably about two billion galaxies in existence." Crap, there's a lot more than that! There are trillions of galaxies in existence in the lower universe, and there's more than that too.

So, you are all co-creators already, because the way God operates is: you come down here [lower dimensions] you take responsibility. It's not like we have kings and queens in our world here, where they do take a fair bit of responsibility. But when you're a king and a queen out there, the way we do it properly, is when you manifest a galaxy, when you want to become a 'king' or a 'queen' of a galaxy (and that's just labels: king/queen; it's just to get the concept with you) your energy stream of your being goes into manifesting that galaxy, and your energy stream of your being manifests all the planets. It's the foundation for all the planets, because other beings come into your galaxy, and experience the way your galaxy vibrates, and they manifest themselves as a planet, and a star, and it's just multi-layered like that. We all go inside each other, and experience each other in the different ways we express one another. So we're more interconnected than you can possibly imagine. Everyone says, "Yeah, we're all one. It's all beautiful and everything." Wow! You have people that you fight with, you can understand that you're sorting out karma because you two were two galaxies at war on another level way back when, and you're sorting out all that karma. And it goes on and on and on. It's really expansive.

So, we took this journey down here, and God said, “We’re going to expand, but then one day we’re going to start funneling everything into singularity again.” And what pops out the other end are Creator Gods. So you are gods in your own right, but not in this Universe. You’re in the process of becoming God. We are Gods in the making. Now you all have your Christ center. That is the consciousness of this Universe. That is a seed that was planted inside of you when you first made contact here [9th dimension]. The Christ center is a seed, and within the next four years that seed is about to sprout. You can call it Buddha, Krishna, Quetzalcoatl, the Rainbow Serpent, the Green Man, Pan. You can call it Ra; you can call it anything you like. It’s describing the same thing, different culture, different time, and different interpretation. Everyone’s talking the same language, really.

So, once we went through the journey of expansion, and went through all the horrendous wars, and exhausted all possibilities and outcomes on the 4th dimension, a 3rd dimensional paradigm was created (and as we are stepping down, we are getting into a slower waveform, which means more density the lower the vibration, the more density, molecules vibrate slower, the more dense matter becomes). God said, "Right, we’re going to start bringing everything back together.", because this is inside God. And this free will zone, (people think they’ve got free will, but really the whole thing was designed from up here) [5th dimension], don’t forget that. This Higher Self aspect of you planned the whole life and the outcome. So if you think you are roaming this planet with free will, and then you have got to think about that, because once you get in touch with your Higher Self, you then realize and know for sure that we do not have free will down here. We just think that we do. That is an illusion of the lower ego, but it needed to be that way, and we needed to go through that illusion (the separation). People don't like that, because whenever they do something that is bad, they can then no longer blame anybody else but themselves. They can’t blame anybody else. It's no-body's fault but mine. Everything I have done, and everything I have been in all this area here [3rd and 4th dimensions] it’s all me; it’s all of my own making, of my own doing.

Energy Diagram

So, God then decided, "I'm going to take this project on now hands-on." The feminine and the masculine aspects of the Creator decided to manifest themselves as galaxies. And they did that. The feminine aspect of the Creator (the Divine Mother) manifested herself as our galaxy, the Milky Way Galaxy. It is termed as such because of the nurturing of the mother's milk. The male aspect of the Universe manifested itself as the Andromeda Galaxy. In Greek, the word "Andros" means "husband". The Andromeda Galaxy is the one right next door to ours. So you have got the masculine and the feminine, the Divine Sacred Couple.

Everybody from all these different galaxies then came into this one galaxy [the Milky Way Galaxy], because the call went out to all the beings who were ready to return home and make this journey to become a Creator God. So, all the Spiritual Hierarchies, and all these galaxies worked out which beings were going to represent each galaxy and come into this galaxy. So, each star system in this galaxy is a settlement, or a condensing down, and a representation of a galaxy (you've gone from a galaxy, compressing it down into one star system). So, we're on the road to compression and more density.

From there, everybody came into the galaxy. So, now you have got all these differences of separation being compressed into one galaxy. And we had a lot of wars that took place in the galaxy in the beginning because there was a lot of jostling for elbow space and positions of power and what have you. It was a pretty painful time, but then it got to the point where it had to be compressed down to the next level again, and the Universal Consciousness in its masculine and feminine aspects then said, "Right, we are going to take control of this firsthand again, and we are going to manifest ourselves as a star system." And so the male aspect manifested itself as the Orion League.

In Egyptian mythology, that is Osiris, or the Hunter, which is really another aspect of this guy anyway [points to image of Jesus Christ]. Remember, we are talking about the Universal Creator. That is what this represents too, that picture there [points image with a pyramid]. And the feminine manifested herself as Sirius, which is also known as Isis. They have got other names in other cultures; I'm just sharing the ones I'm familiar with. Every culture has this knowledge hidden in it.

Now, what took place in Orion was so profound. It was the masculine energy compressing itself right in, so that all the warring and controlling energies of that masculine energy was played out in what we call the "Orion Wars", and that's what the Star Wars series is all about, that energy. It was one of the most painful and horrific times ever, because it really needed to be sorted out once and for all. Of course, it is still in the process of happening as you are well aware, but a big chunk of it was transmuted in the Orion League through that era. It was a very painful time, and I have spoken to people, and heard people talk about their memories of the Orion Wars. The deprivation of freedom, and the tortures, and what took place and the technology that was used to hurt people in that era was, there are no words to describe how horrific that was.

So, that is why we have in Egypt the three pyramids, because they are a fractal of the Orion's belt. Osiris came to this planet a bit over 12,500 years ago as Ra, and built those pyramids to anchor that masculine energy into this plane. That's what those pyramids do. You will hear all sorts of stories about those pyramids, but they anchor the male energies into the Earth plane, all that war, all that control, all that horrendous energy. What was happening was that the masculine and the feminine needed to go to the next level, and they manifested themselves as our Sun, which is known as Horus, and as Earth, which is known as Hathor in the Egyptian pantheon. Now, you can go to the library and pick up a book in today's world, and they won't tell you that Hathor was the embodiment of Mother Earth. They won't tell you that, because that's a secret, because "We have got to suppress the feminine and suppress the truth." Again, everything I share with you here today you can do with as you will. If you don't want to accept anything I say, I am at peace with that. But I'm not going to sit here and tiptoe through the tulips with you. I'm not going to sit here and express myself in such a fragile way that I don't want to hurt any-body's feelings. I truly don't want to hurt any-one's feelings, but if I say something that nudges your belief system, then I'm sorry about that, because we're right at the business end of the cycle, and the truth needs to be shared, so I will just lay my cards on the table.

In the pantheon, Osiris and Isis come together and have a son called Horus, and that is the Sun. Jesus Christ, the Sun of God. Horus and Jesus are the one being. The Divine Mother manifested herself as the Earth because, and this is the Adam, Eve, and Serpent business with God. You are taught that Eve was seduced by the Serpent, and fell into a lower vibration. That is the biggest load of "codswallop"! They formulated a plan together. See, that other story gets told to, once again to undermine the feminine. To show that she's weak, that she's easily conned, and it just takes away the real hero in all of this, because this guy here [points to image of Jesus Christ] is getting a lot of attention. But, the real one, when he comes along, he's going to tell you who the real hero is. He's going to tell you that the Divine Feminine is the real hero in all of this, because she manifested herself as a planet that was going to see the very last vestiges of this plan play itself out. She volunteered to manifest herself into a planetary body where everyone can incarnate on. She volunteered to be raped, to be pillaged, to be plundered, to be tortured, to be poisoned, to be beaten; and not for a short period of time, not just for a few thousand years, this has been going on for millions of years. So if any big fellow wants to stand up in front of me and talk tough, I'll tell you who is the toughest of them all, that's the Divine Mother. That's the Divine Feminine. There is no other being in this Universe that is as courageous, that is as strong, that is as nurturing, that is as unconditionally loving as that woman, as the Divine Mother. She's my hero, because I know the magnitude of her journey, and I assure you that over the next few years, as you awaken and you reconnect with your true heart, your Christ center, you will come to know this. I'm not standing up here preaching. You all know this already. You've just forgotten, and you will automatically come to know this over the next few years. I assure you of that. She is the real hero.

So, the pyramids anchor that masculine energy into this Earth plane. That's what needed to happen so we can play all this crap out. I have got this word written up here: "Apocalypse".

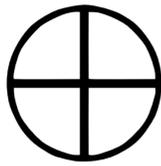

You look up the dictionary and it says, "The revealing of the truth". The word is three Greek words put together, "Apo", "kali", "psyche", which means, as I have written, "from the good spirit". So another part of the manipulation is to get you to fear that word. Now the controllers fear that word. They are scared. My goodness, are they scared, because when this happens, when truth and the knowledge come from the good spirit, it is game over. It's game over for them. So when you all awaken now and understand the real truth of what is going on here, which you all will, don't take my word for it. Like I say, you are going to know this for yourselves, its game over for them. That is the true meaning behind this word. They just love to taint things with their brushes you know?

So, it's compression from expansion of the lower universes, down to two galaxies, down to two star systems, down to one singular star system, and then a planetary body. That is the journey we have all taken. And where are we all headed? That's where you come from. Everyone is an ET. We're all in this generic form called the human embodiment. Oh, and that's another thing I would like to share with you. People say to me, "But I don't have this connection with the Divine Mother. I don't feel her." You are so intimately connected with her. I will run this as an example for you. In the church they hold up (now I have been christened Greek Orthodox by the way, but I am into Christianity, not Churchianity. There is a big difference between the two), so they hold up the wafer and they go, "This is the body of the Christ." And the wine is the "blood of the Christ." And they go through this thing called "Communion". Well, first of all, where did that wafer come from? It came from the Earth. It was grown from wheat, comes from the Earth. Where did the wine come from? Comes from grapes, it was grown from the Earth. Everything you eat, you know, people give thanks around the table. Who do they give thanks to? A male god! Everything you consume, the air that you breathe, the water that you drink, everything comes from Mother Earth. Your body is made up of the organic matter of the Earth. That's how intimately connected you are to her. You are inside that body, which is of the Earth, of the Divine Mother. And people don't get it. People don't understand how closely, and how intimate that relationship is.

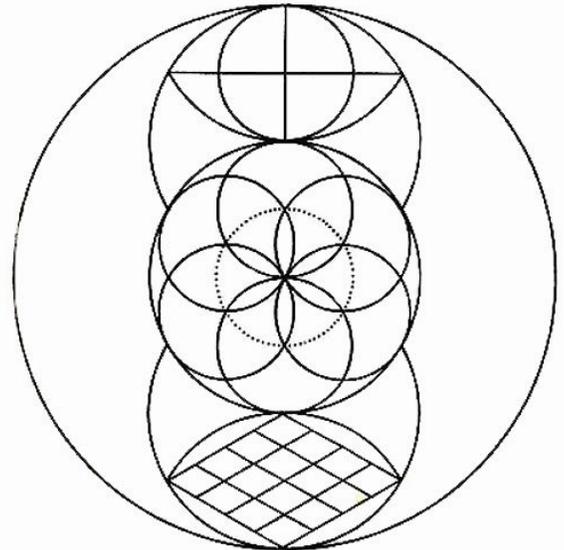

Now, we have the next phase of the journey coming up. Where we are headed is, as I said before, to become Creator Gods. Everybody has heard of this thing called "Ascension". What does it really mean? It happens in stages, and you don't just "bang", ascend in one hit. Everyone hears about December 2012, everyone is familiar with that. There is a cycle called "The Precession of the Equinoxes". After I booked this hall three months ago, or whatever it was, it was quite a long time ago, it didn't occur to me back then. And then it dawned on me, because I was connecting with profound information, and discovered that the Apocalypse begins today. Today is the equinox, and today is the activation of the Apocalypse. There's only four years to go till this cycle ends, and this planet ascends, and everybody who is left on it will ascend. It begins today.

Now there are other people being brought to my attention who are talking about the massive energy patterns that are happening on the world today, and over the next few days. There are people being guided to do all sorts of energy work and sacred rituals, and whatever you are guided to do, whether it is to stand in a park and twirl around. You might not realize it, but you are creating a vortex and anchoring energies in or taking energies out just by twirling in a park with your arms out. If you are not consciously aware of it, things are happening on all different levels all the time. And that is what we are all doing collectively all around the world. We are all activating the Apocalypse. You don't have to believe me. I know it sounds a bit preachy, but all I can say is, with the vast experiences that I have had, and the knowledge that I have gathered, I understand the timing of the cycle, and that's what's happening.

You are all aware of that symbol [points to a circle with an equilateral cross within it]. It is the symbol behind the head of Jesus. The American Indians call that symbol the “medicine wheel”. The Australian Aborigines call that symbol the “sacred watering hole”, and that is interesting. Why water? Well, hang on for minute, baptismal waters. What is that all about? There is a connection there straightaway. The waters; the sacred waters; the baptismal waters, represents the higher consciousness and that is what you get connected to. It is the symbol of life. That is why that symbol is here [points to image of sacred geometry]. This is the matrix of the lower universes. This is the symbol of the Higher Self, and this here is the divine symbol of your “I AM Presence”. Those are the three levels in sacred geometric form.

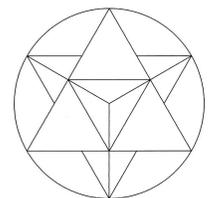

The cycle is the Precession of the Equinoxes, not the Precession of the Solstices. You just keep hearing about December 21, 2012, it's a solstice. I don't know why people don't understand that bit. I am seeing a lot of people around the world at the moments that are starting to move toward 2013 now. They are. I've seen documentaries made about 2013, as opposed to just focusing on that one day. 2012 is important, because by the end of that day everyone, and I'm not undermining how important that day is, believe me, it's important, because we will all have gone into the 5th dimension by that day. The last person walks through on that day, on this planet (whoever stays here), because we merge the 20, which is the “icosa” (Greek for “twenty”) with the 12, which is the “dodeca” (Greek for “twelve”). Baptismal waters, the icosahedron are the etheric template for water, the platonic solid for water. Dodecahedron is the platonic solid, the etheric template for spirit. You are merging those two aspects. You are entering the baptismal waters of the higher consciousness of heaven on that day. The last people walk through on that day. It's going to happen in waves. I'm going through in 2011 sometime. At the last talk I did, there were two ladies in front, nodding their heads. They knew straight away. "Yep, we're going in, and we are coming out to do work." There are a lot of fully consciously aware people who know their journey.

Dodecahedron and Icosahedron

So, back to the precessional cycle: The precession at 2012 is really important. It ends on the 21st of March 2013. That is the day the planetary light body gets activated. That is the day (to put it in the sacred geometrical terms) the star tetrahedron of the being [Earth] gets activated, because that nests inside of it. I know that is a bit full-on for some people, but there are people watching this video, and are here in the crowd who know exactly what I'm talking about.

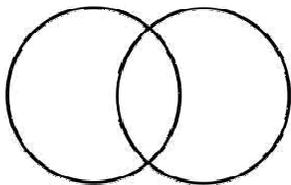

Star Tetrahedron
That is when everything gets activated! And whew! We then enter a realm that has never existed before anywhere in creation.

So, what's happening on this planet is brand new. It is completely brand new. It has never happened before. This planet is going to turn into a star! That sounds crazy, I know, but I can't (not) say it anymore. I have been walking around with this for a long time. I have had debates with friends like you wouldn't believe. People say, "Look, every other time that happened, the planet just dies. It's a dead body, and that is what it is going to look like, and we are just going to live in a higher dimension." No! Not this time! This is the end! This is the cycle to end all cycles! This is the planet that is going to give birth to a planetary race of Christed beings, of Buddhas, of Krishnas, or whatever label you want to use.

The internal core this planet was much smaller. If you look at the land masses of this planet, they fit together like a jigsaw puzzle. They do. Just take out an atlas and look at how all the land masses fit together. This planet was much smaller than what it is now. It has already gone through a major expansion process. Now the internal core is firing up again. The oceans aren't heating up because we are pumping too much carbon dioxide into the atmosphere. That's a part of it, but it is not the main factor. You will get told a whole lot of stories because they don't want you to know the truth. They don't want to give power to the Divine Feminine, to the consciousness that is this Earth. That is the last thing they want. They can't handle that, because all they ever wanted to do was controls that, to suppress it. "We're the ones in charge". This planet is going to turn into a star, and nothing is going to stop that from happening.

When we walk through, what is going to happen is that dimensional doorways are going to open up all over the planet, and that's what that represents [image of Christ in middle of vesica piscis]. That is the vesica piscis. It is the womb of the Mother. That is the Christ coming out of the womb into this reality and doing his thing. It's him coming out of Avalon; out of Shambhala. The 5th dimensional realm on this planet is the realm of the goddess. When those dimensional doorways open up, there will be beings going in, and beings coming out, and the beings coming out are known as the "Angels of Avalon". It's in a lot of scriptures. I was really happy to hear in a book that I read about Shambhala (and it was the first time I've ever seen it being mentioned) that predominantly, the beings in Shambhala are feminine. It was the first time I saw it anywhere, and I thought, "Thank goodness, finally someone has written the truth." They know. So, ponder on that.

Part 2: The Grand Deception

This is Part 2. The talk is being labeled "Our Journey and The Grand Deception." So, I've shared with you our journey, and believe me, I could have talked about that all day, so to me that is the short version of it. Now I'm going to get into the Grand Deception, so we'll alter the vibration a little bit coming out of me, but I have got to share this stuff with you because it is a part of our reality, and it's going to be a big part of every-one's reality really soon, because all of this is all going on behind the scenes. I'm involved right in the thick of it behind the scenes. When you go to sleep at night, many of you are involved in it too. We go to sleep at night, we leave our bodies, and we do lots of work behind the scenes. Now, honestly, how many people have gone to bed and have woken up so much more tired than when they first went to bed? Everybody is nodding their heads. That's because you have had a really busy night working really hard behind the scenes. We're all heroes here. So, the difference is (if you want to use that word) some of us have more recall than the rest. That's all it is, and it is my journey to have more recall than somebody else. That's all. I can assure you that there are a lot of pros and there's a lot of cons that come with that, because it is really difficult to walk around and function in this Matrix, being a dad, being a friend, whatever, and have all these experiences, and all that knowledge, walking around with it, and knowing all the deception, and all the horrendous things that are taking place in our reality.

So, I'm going to share with you more of the heavy-duty stuff in this section, and then we're going to finish off with the really good, bright, happy, juicy stuff, because it's not all doom and gloom. The doom and gloom bit is really so small compared to the rest of it, but because you are inside of it, it looks big, and you experience it as being big. It is all about to spill over into the public arena. As I said, today (21st March 2009) is the activation of the Apocalypse. All the energetic patterns are going into the grids now to facilitate the veil being removed; the truth to be revealed, all the events to take place that are going to activate and stimulate all of your ancient memories. It is the last vestiges of the karmic energies that need to be played out, dissolved, and transmuted.

Remember that I said we are all ETs. So remember, in order to go through the ascension process and become a Creator God, we plunged down; we went through all these experiences, and then we've ended up through compression, stepping it down onto Mother Earth. And then from Earth, our very next stage is the 5th dimension, which is the 2012 doorway. And like I said, some people are already walking through; I am walking through in my consciousness constantly. I go in and out of Avalon; I manifest another body there, I do it all the time. So if people want to say I'm deluded or whatever, that is their logical, rational mind trying to work out what I'm experiencing for real. The ascension process is taking us to a level. You see, the next step in the ascension process means that we go to the 5th dimension on Mother Earth, and then from there we prepare for ascension. It will be what we would call a three-month process of preparations.

Now, I travelled into the future with my consciousness, and I saw ships everywhere, coming in the 5th dimension. I did it also in a few years' time, but I will share this one first. Once we've walked through those doorways into the 5th dimension, that's where our true brothers and sisters from the stars will come and meet us, on that level, because we said goodbye to all of them on this level [5th dimension], they know we are not going to see them again. That's a lot of the pain and yearning you have when you look at the stars, that you feel this yearning for.

"This isn't my home. I come from out there somewhere." So many people I talk to have those experiences. We've said goodbye to that forever (for those who go through). We come onto the Earth to go through the 5th dimension on the Earth. Now, the ships that turned up on the 5th dimension are the construct of a light body. It is very different, and life there is very, very different. Not all beings choose to actually travel on ships anyway, they just use their consciousness.

The celebrations that took place! The tears of joy that I saw on every-one's faces! Also, we are all going to naturally gravitate to our twin flames. That's another thing I'm going to be talking about. Divine Sacred Union [draws image on board]. Then everybody was preparing for that three month period when ascension takes place on that day (March 21, 2013), and that planetary light body gets activated, everything on that level ... because the ecosystem on that level is very beautiful too. Don't forget, what people don't understand is, this whole ecosystem on the Earth has to go. A lot of people think ascension is, "Alright, we're just going to slowly merge into newer technologies, and we're going to go back to nature, and everything will be beautiful." Hang on a minute. How can you have a bunch of enlightened beings walking a planetary body while all around them there is death and destruction? Lions eat zebras. Has anyone ever seen a cat play with a mouse? Viruses, bacteria, everything consumes everything else. What people don't understand is that this whole ecosystem has to go as well. The whole thing has to go. It's a contradictory situation to have a planet full of enlightened beings while they are inside an environment which is totally barbaric around them. It makes no sense just looking at it from a sensible point of view.

So the concept of this planet turning into a star makes perfect sense when you understand the whole process, when you look at it from the bigger picture. Then you go, "Oh, Okay!" So the whole environment has to change as well, and that is why it is going to become a star. The whole outer crust of this Earth is going to melt away. And here is the message I have for the ruling elite: If you think you can build underground bases, and if you think you are going to be safe, you are deluding yourselves. You are absolutely kidding yourselves, and the extraterrestrials that you are in contact with at this time are lying to you, and I mean lying. They have lied to me; they have taken me; they have tortured me; and they are not what they seem.

Now who and what is the Galactic Federation of Light? The Galactic Federation of Light originates ... its headquarters ... and you will hear all sorts of stories of Lyra this, that, and the other in Orion. They come from a star, one of the belt stars, as seen here from the southern hemisphere, it is on this one here [shows on diagram], and it is "Alnitak". That is the star where they come from. They come from the planet called "Despora". That's what they call it. They call it Despora, and that is its equivalent in our English language. I'm sure you have heard that term in some religions here on the planet too. Now the reason why they call it Despora is because it comes from a Greek word "diaphora", which means the ones who are separate from the rest. It means the ones who are the chosen ones, the enlightened ones. They are a blond-haired, blue-eyed race, and I am not being racist, because there are a lot of beautiful blond-haired, blue-eyed races out there, but these beings are so beautiful, so angelic-looking, and so incredibly evil. It is the way they handle you, and the things they do to you. You can come across Reptilians, and these were all Reptilians. These beings have evolved; they have changed physical containers. They no longer look Reptilian, but when you have the ability to see properly, when you can see properly you see through the facade, and they are not what they seem. They have this ability to connect with you mentally/telepathically. Telepathy is mental. The 4th dimension is the mental dimension. And what they do simultaneously is they have technology, and they have the ability to stroke your central nervous system, giving you the sensation of euphoria. There's "channelers" all around the world who have fallen victim to these beings, and it is happening. I see it everywhere. I have dealt with these beings time and time again.

I am part of what is called the Council of Light, the Galactic Council. There are many here on the planet. I'm not saying this to make myself sound fantastic, because it is all about responsibility. It's got nothing to do with ego, fame, or fortune—nothing to do with that; it's all about responsibility. They [the Reptilian Nordics] have been doing what they have been doing to me because they know who I am. They know who I am, they know what I'm doing here, and they know what I'm about to do here, and they have done everything in their power to stop me from doing it. You've all been put through the big test, and I'm here to tell you that there is no way in hell they are going to win. It is over. It is finished, and it was finished a long time ago. It's not about winning and losing. It is about the evolutionary process of the Universe.

Now these beings are called the Nordics from Orion. Our governments have been in contact with these beings for a very long time. They like to build their underground bases; they get told to build their underground bases. They have a base on Mars, upwards of half a million Earth people are living there already. Now you hear people talking about the Grays. They are all in collaboration even though they are factional and they fight, and do all this sort of stuff. They all belong to this one big empire, which spans the top starts here, and goes all the way down [Top of the 4th dimension to the bottom]. That is what we on the planet call the "Galactic Federation of Light", because they are so closely aligned [to the Council of Light]. This is what they do, they replicate. And because I am here from the Galactic Council of Light (if you want to call it that), they were able to manipulate me. I've been given implant after implant; they've thrown everything at me, mind control programs; they plug holograms into you. I have had holograms run through my system because what they are trying to do with that is break me. They are trying to break that barrier between my being here (3rd dimension/George) and my being there (5th dimension/Higher Self). They try and "crack" it; they try and drive a wedge through that barrier within you, because we've all got that. That's the barrier between your lower being and your Higher Self. They have tortured me with holograms, and it reaches so deep inside of you; the way they use this technology is horrendous. But here I am! I'm sharing this personal, intimate stuff, and to live a life to try and function and not be able to share it with your family, oh, it's been a hard road, okay. That is why when I stand up here and I talk about this stuff, I am telling you I know what I'm talking about.

They have amassed a great empire. At the top of that empire, there are two beings that run the whole show. They are both originally, and still are at the core, Crocodilian-Reptilians. For those who don't know about this stuff, look at their ancient Sumer statues. You will see the snouts. Look at the Egyptian hieroglyphs; you'll see crocodiles in it. They are everywhere. You have just got to go looking for them in the right places; it's nothing new. They have amassed such a great empire that it spans all the dimensional levels, well, you see, that is a dimensional level. These are really octaves [levels of the 4th dimension], but they sell it like it is a dimensional level. I have heard speakers on this planet talking about 6th and 7th dimensional Dracos. I have heard them talking about these beings coming in from the 12th dimension. Well, no, they couldn't have because everybody came in from the 9th dimension as a Soul, so there is no way that beings can come in from the 12th dimension. It is impossible. So what they have done is they have replicated the whole dimensional structure of the Universe down here in the lower universes, and these beings play God.

So, my 2004 presentation was them taking my knowledge and assimilating me into their structure. That is what they did. And I'm here to tell you that they can only go to here [Uppermost part of 4th dimension]. That is it. So really, they are only big fish in a small pond that is all they are. They are misguided, frightened little creatures, and that's all they are at the end of the day. Now I have a great deal of respect for them, having said all that, because I respect all life. But, I have to call a spade a spade. You have to be real about things in life. You can't live in la-la land the whole time, not in this reality you can't. So, the reality is that these guys are coming. They are already here, but they are about to present themselves to you.

Now, Planet X: Planet X is right now on the other side of the Sun. As we go around the Sun, it goes around the Sun too, so we never get to see it. It is hiding there, Wormwood Planet, Nibiru, all these names, whatever you want to call it. When these beings turn up, what their objective is to stop as many people as possible from staying on this planet and walking through those dimensional doorways to the true path of ascension. They are going to come here, and they are going to sell everyone, all of you, their version of ascension. They have created a false light body, but it only goes to there [Upper limits of 4th dimension]. So when you are down here in these vibrations [3rd dimension], when you come across a being up in the higher reaches of their empire, you think you are talking to an ascended master or an angelic being.

What they have done over a period of (time), especially the last six thousand years. (Because don't forget that this is all part of the Great Divine Plan, God contracted these beings to come and do that to us here. And you all wanted to have that experience, and that's why you are here right now. Don't forget that. So take responsibility for it, and don't blame anybody else and all that business). They are going to sell love better than a U.S. election campaign. I'm telling you. All the whistles and bells, all the lights and the glory, and they are going to talk it up like anything. Now, they need to do that because they need to win the hearts and the minds of the people in order to seduce as many people as possible onto their ships. These are the guys who are feeding off the worship even though they won't say it. These beings have real power. I have experienced it. I've experienced their power. What they can do to you is amazing. However, the moment your higher being steps in; they've got nothing on you when you just use that part of your being, let alone the rest of it. You've got to realize that, I'm saying they are really powerful, and have got amazing powers of control and everything, but at the same time realize that the moment you switch a bit of that power on, they are nothing. They are like an ant compared to an elephant, just from you using vibratory levels from here [5th dimension] onto them down here. So they are on their way, and they are already here. They are teaching the government behind the scenes to build all these underground bases.

Now, I will just look at the camera for a minute [Directly addresses the dark side and the shadow government]. You guys who are building the underground bases on this Earth, you are the suckers. You are the ones who have been taken for a big ride because they give you these special passes, and you think you are one of the chosen ones, one of the elite. You are being put into these underground bases, so when the time comes and the Earth's crust melts away with an internal fire coming up from the center of the core of this Earth, you are going to perish because you are the suckers. They don't want you. They don't want you. The ones who are going to Mars are more the ones that they want. You don't fit the bill. They definitely don't want someone like me, because I'm not going to listen to them. I'm going to be too hard to handle.

So, there are these Orion Nordics or P52s as they call them around Area 51 or whatever. There are codes for them. The shadow government has all these codes. They are lying to you. They are lying to you through the teeth. What they did is they first sent lower vibratory beings here, beings with technology which you know as the Grays. See, this empire has incredible resources at its disposal. Remember, we are talking hundreds, maybe thousands of star nations that have been indoctrinated into this empire. So these Grays that have come here are sent here first because they are the master geneticists, fantastic with technology, fantastic with mind control programs. They are doing the job that they need to do first before they send these other guys in to do their bit. It is all part of a master plan. I'll tell you, that they are factional; they have different cultural philosophies, yes they do, but I assure you with every ounce and fiber of my being that they are collaborating behind the scenes in the greater empire. You are being conned. You are being so conned. It is never too late to relinquish your thirst for control and power and turn yourselves around. It's never too late. You'll be given every opportunity to do that.

Over the next two to three years, more of you are going to be waking up profoundly. This information that I'm providing here today a lot of people already know, but the magnitude of it I don't feel is known. Because I've seen what's going on around the Internet and the world, and what people have to say, not a lot, but bits and pieces here and there. And I don't think they have grasped the whole magnitude of it, the big picture. I'm one of the first (not for ego reasons, but of life's journey) to come up and say this stuff. I know that over the next few years, there are going to be more, and more, and more who are going to start coming out and saying it. There is, because like I said, it's time for the truth to come out and the truth to be revealed.

Those beings that are going to Mars, that's another con because it is not going to be a happy life there. It really isn't. Can you imagine being on a desolate planet and having to live mostly underground? It's not what you think it's going to be. They will always want to control you. You see, the journey we have taken here to come to Planet Earth and to be in this generic form, which we call human form ("Hu-Man" is Godly man). Our genetics, the codes, like the codes in your body, for example are all the codes of the Universe and are contained in that body. You've got it, [referring to audience] you've got it, you've got it, we've all got it. That is why it is generic. We are essentially the most powerful beings in the Universe. And all this manipulation that has been taking place is because these beings have gone absolutely berserk at that fact. They say, "How could you possibly have beings that are more powerful than us! No way! We are not going to let that happen. We are the masters. We are the ones in control here. How dare they!"

So these beings are going to come here and they are going to say, "Oh, you poor humans look at you. You all fight against one another. You all kill each other. You're not evolved." But they're not telling you that they are manifesting this behind the scenes. They're the ones who are pulling the strings. They're the ones who create the division. They're the ones who create the wars. They're the ones who have been allowed to come here and manifest things as they are.

So when the end comes, they can come here and say this to you. It's so important to understand how powerful you are. You hold all the codes in the Universe inside of you.

Hu-man means god-man of godly mind. We are not Hu-man yet, but we are about to become Hu-man. We are still going through the homo-sapiens stuff. A homo-sapient, what is that? These other beings that want to destroy the planet, want to mine her body for resources and everything; that are in what we call human form. No mate, they are homo-sapiens, animal consciousness. It's not humane to do that to Mother Earth. The humane thing to do would be to work with nature, to share with one another, to love one another, to nurture one another. That is what it means to be a humane being. Now, to be a homo-sapien, what does that mean? That is two Greek words: "homos" means Earth, and "sapios" in Greek means rotten. So these beings who want to remain with the lower animal consciousness of the homo-sapien will turn this Earth rotten. And that is exactly what they have done.

So, here we have this incredible empire, and you have got the Jesus of the church, not the real Jesus, the Jesus of the church, which is a personality and a character that has been portrayed to the masses. When everyone is in church, they're praying and they are projecting, and you know you see it in the evangelistic churches where they are singing their songs with tears streaming down. If you know the power of intention we have, can you imagine how much energy is being projected out? And these beings are just going [makes slurping sound], "Thank-you very much." That is why, when they have a planetary race of the most powerful beings in the Universe worshipping them, they have never, ever, ever been fed so much power in all of existence. It is like a drug for them because they are who they are because of that worship. If everybody stopped worshipping and started understanding and respecting instead, then all that will go away. So, they are coming to harvest as much of their human herd (and this is their terminology, that is how they said it to me their "human herd") as possible because they need worship. They need it. They can't be who they are without it. For them to lose the level of power they have now is unthinkable. It's death to them.

Now, over the next few years this is all going to play out. They will reveal themselves; it's going to be all about love. All I want to share with you is, please, from my heart, please be careful. But at the end of the day, whatever path you choose is right for you. If you want to get on those ships, if you think, "Oh, no, I know what George said that day and all that, I don't resonate with that," then go onto those ships because that is your journey. If it is destined for you to stay in the lower universe longer, then stay longer. At the end of the day, it doesn't really matter. You can hang out down here a bit longer and go through the arduous process a bit longer if you like. It just means you are not ready to come out.

It is like a party, you know. Some people are at a party, and then the parents come home and they say, "You have got to wind up the party now." "Aw, but Mum, but Dad, I'm having a good time. I don't want the party to end." That is what is happening here on Earth. Big Momma and Big Papa have come along and said, "It's time to end the party, folks. It's time." And there are a whole lot of beings that just don't want it to happen. And they will kick and scream and throw tantrums and do everything possible to hang onto this reality and to the control, the seduction, and to the torture, and to everything that is going on here because they don't want their party to end. They're high and mighty sitting at the top, sucking off the resources of the most powerful beings in the Universe. And they're on such a big ego trip because they're saying, "Ha! Here is God who created a godly being, and look what we've done to it. So we are the real gods. We are the real gods; look what we've done." However, they have forgotten. They have forgotten about the contract way back a long time ago when they were told, "We will let you come here and do this because we need to create an environment for people to come and incarnate, and dissolve their karma, and be tested right to the nth degree to see who's going to make it through and who is not."

Now, these Orion Nordics are very clever. Like I said, the way they play with their words. I have read some stuff, New Age stuff. It's awesome! They had me going for a while there too, but after a while you start to see through it. I've got friends who just look at it and go, "Oh...I don't know!" just the energy coming off the page, and the words written on there. You get to the point where you just feel it straight away. You can read two sentences into it and you go, "Uh-uh. No thanks." I got friends who are told, "Read this. It comes from this", and my friend goes, "Nah. I don't want to read it. I don't want to look at the video. Don't need to. Just don't need to." For that being in his heart already knows. Already knows. He doesn't even have to look at it. "No thanks."

What the Orion Nordics are saying now is, (they are saying to the ruling elite and the shadow government and all the black ops and stuff that going on behind the scenes) "we are your future, we have come from your future, and we're here to help you," and by doing that they undermine straightaway your validity; your sense of self-worth. It's a good con. I mean if you needed to approach a planet, you have got to put yourself in their shoes, you see, if you needed to approach a planetary population, what would you do? What would you do if you put yourself in their shoes? "We are your future." So it is like, "Oh, good little children. We're so much more evolved than you are. Listen to us. We will look after you." What a con!

And the amount of money! And where that money comes from, oh my goodness! I won't go into it, but the amount of money that has been spent on these projects that these beings undertake. You see, what they do is they come here, and they get into the ruling elite of the planet, and into their heads, and keep them busy: "You need to create this project, and do this or that. Oh, we'll teach you about wormholes. Here! Look at this technology!" And the scientists are like, "Whoa! That is amazing!", and they are just tunnel-visioned. They are kept in this little paradigm on the planet; this little circle. So you've got this big planet, and these beings are just kept in this little paradigm, right, to give it to you visually, (they are) kept busy. [Example] "Alright, we've got these guys working on that project there." And then what they do is they sort these people out, they feel them out; "Who's worthy, who's not, who knows, who can see, who susses us out, who's conforming to our agenda, and who's not conforming to our agenda."

So they have got all these scientific projects with all this high tech stuff. Don't forget, they deprived us all these hundreds of years. They are the ones who plunged everybody down into the Dark Ages, stripped everything away, and tried to hide all the ancient technologies. I know how we built pyramids. I was there. We just went up to the rocks, and we asked the rocks (or their consciousness because each mountain is a being, right?), we asked, "Would you like to be part of this project?" The rock goes, "Yes, I would", and some others would say, "No, it's not my path." Then the rocks divide themselves into whatever amount of molecular structure you require, because you tell it what it is you want to do and ask, "Do you want to be a part of it?" So you work with nature, and you are one with life. Then you project an energy resonance into that rock and you levitate it. You alter the molecular structure. The thing floats. It is easy. I cannot do that right now, obviously, because I'm still operating on limited consciousness, but I'm reliving what I did back then. That is where I'm coming from when I'm talking about this. It was easy back then, and it is just so effortless when you do these things, when you are in that state of being. You just levitate the rocks and you float them and push them with your little finger. Then you put them into position, and you slowly re-densify that rock, and the rock slowly comes down and molds itself into place. That is why you cannot even get a piece of paper between rocks in the pyramids. Everything is just so perfect. That is why when monuments are built this way, they stand the test of time.

The Templars did a project where they went to a mountainside, and they got all the rocks from the bottom up. All the rocks they took from the top first were put aside. The rocks that were at the bottom of the cliff face or quarry, they put at the bottom of the building. And they built two churches side by side, and then they restructured the rocks the same way they got them from the hillside. Then they built another one... just here and there... "We'll use this rock, and we'll use that rock." After two hundred years, that one started to crumble, and that (first) one is still standing today perfectly. The reason is that with the first church, they were still maintaining the energy patterns and the life force energy through that rock. And that's why the pyramids still stand and have stood the test of time; and in South America with all their monuments, etc., etc.

So, we've been bedazzled by technology, and here we have the Grays now who are saying, "We come from this timeline from your future." No, they don't. What happened with the original Grays, because this story of the Grays that they are projecting to this planet now, is that there was an original race of humanoid beings on a planet that had a nuclear disaster, and they went underground, and they came out a few hundred thousand years later, and they chose the path of technology. They genetically removed emotion and everything out of their DNA because they needed to do that to live in such a confined space. All their body parts atrophied, and that is why the Grays look the way they do. Now that is the original race that did that. And they, I can tell you they are beautiful beings. They are the ones who originally came here to warn us not to head down the path we're going. Because that—and I have met with them personally, they say, "Look at me. Look at this body. You do not want to end up like me. We have lost our way. We have lost our connection with the Creator. We are so desperate to return to the Creator." And that is the truth.

But what happened is, these guys caught wind of it and thought, "We are going to use this." So you have got the Grays who are being created by these other beings as their slaves to come and sell you the same story. I have been abducted by both. Again, I'm telling you because I live this stuff. I live it, and I know what it is like to have a machine plugged into you and them trying to turn on this device that sucks your kundalini out of your system. That hurts. That really, really hurts.

Now by doing that, they're saying to the ruling elite behind the scenes, "this disaster that's coming up", you know because they've told them there's a big disaster coming because they can see the future, right? Because they tell them there is a big disaster coming because of the timeline, and they say that they have come back here and all sorts of things. They have created this incredible story, and they say, "It's the technology that did it. It's the wormholes that did it, so we have got to turn off all these devices." Devices that they use to look into the future, devices that can create wormholes so they can transport from one planetary system to another. They have got all this stuff happening behind the scenes that you wouldn't believe. You take all the science fiction movies in Hollywood and put them all together, and that ain't the half of what's really going on. And they are saying that it is a result of the technology that makes disaster happen on this planet. What another con! By saying that, they totally take away the power of the consciousness of this planet because then they're responsible for what took place here. Do you understand their mind games here? Then they're responsible, "it's our technology", and they're the ones with that power. They're the ones who did that to the planet. What a load of crap! This Divine Mother Earth if she wanted to, she could crush them in an instant, but she won't do it. But I'm here on behalf of her, sharing the message that she is going to turn into a star. Get yourselves organized; get yourselves ready because it's happening.

Now I have done this before. I came here twelve thousand years ago, and I said to everybody, "Get ready! Get yourselves organized because there is some pretty major stuff that is about to happen." And I've got a group of friends whom I have karmic ties with, and I came here and told those twelve and a half thousand years ago that this was going to happen. They didn't believe me then, and they don't believe me now. And this is going to happen. Like I said, you all know this inside of you. Having said that, the whole ecosystem is going to go and turn into a star. I just want to divert a little bit, change the energy, and read this. Because, when I say that you'll all know it for yourselves, I want you to know that a lot of people are getting this around the planet. Here is the e-mail I received.

"What can we do to help this transition of mankind on Earth? That is my question to you. My soul feels a deep sadness these days. When I walk in my woods, I find myself lovingly looking at the trees, the moss, and the ferns, and I think, "How beautiful you are, dear Earth", and all of this will have to go. My feelings tell me that ascension is not only a step up into something wonderful but also a farewell, and in that farewell lays great sadness."

I shared that with you so that you can understand how people all around the world (and that one comes from Scandinavia) are getting it. I was at my son's soccer match, and a dad walked up to me and he goes, "You know what, George? You see all this, everything, the buildings, and the trees? He goes, "I'm going to have to walk away from this one day soon, all of it." My jaw just went like this [drops jaw]! He is just a dad. A lot of us think we are on this high spiritual path and everyone is left behind. No! You have got to understand about Joe Blow working in the factory putting cars together, or whatever. You'd be surprised! You'd be surprised how many people already know this in here, but they just don't say anything. This isn't just little old me standing here making all this up. People are getting it already, really truly getting it in here [the heart], not here [the head], but here.

Now I spoke about Planet X, and that is on its way. I had a vision. Well, you can call it that, but I had a connection with Mother Earth one night in the middle of night. It was so powerful. At 3 o'clock in the morning, straightaway, I was standing up in bed. The amount of energy that came through me was so incredibly beautiful and powerful, instantly I stood up and got out of bed. I was walking around, breathing deeply, trying to regulate the flow of the amount of energy and that connection that we had. The next thing is I found myself looking up at the night sky; and I saw our Moon, and I saw another moon next to it, and it was blood red in color. And that's Planet X. And I was told that things would happen to me personally at the time of the two moons. That is Planet X. That is Nibiru. And the time frame for those things occurring are really soon, around 2011. So that thing is on its way, now you might think, "Well, that could have just been a vision for yourself, right?" Here's another e-mail I got from the other side of the world.

"When I was a little boy" (Now, I recently got this, and this experience I had was years ago) "When I was a little boy, I many times woke up, desperate. It was a dream, a heavenly body, reddish in look, coming closer and closer to Earth. The nearing was accompanied by a terrible sound. I saw people running desperately in all directions, and I cried. Oh, how I cried when waking up."

We're not alone in this. I might be standing here holding a microphone, speaking to you people, speaking down the camera, putting it out across the planet, but understand, all this knowing and all this knowledge will come to you if you don't already have it. People are waking up to this all over the world. It's like a quiet revolution, sounds like a whisper! It's happening, it's beautiful. It really is beautiful.

Now, the Moon, Planet X and Annunaki, I keep hearing stories about the Annunaki. My goodness! "They're so evil". Annunaki this, it's the Annunaki, bloody Annunaki!" Pardon my language. Alright, there are two things going on here. You have got the original Annunaki, and then you have got an impostor Annunaki. The original Annunaki are known as the "Shining Ones". You know them as the "Tuatha Dé Danann" of the Celts. You know them as the "Neters" of Egypt. They are called the "Shining Ones", they are called the "Valnapa" of the Aborigines. They are called many names. They are the original "Shining Ones". They are the Management Team. They are known as the Council of Twelve and the Council of Light. When they originally came here and set life up, the impostors caught wind of that and came here and presented themselves as though they were those beings. So after the original embodiments were created, for its original purpose, they came along and modified the genetics. And it is not the original Annunaki who created slaves for mining gold and all that stuff that gets talked about. It was an imposter group that came and did that because, the way their propaganda campaigns work is that they bad-mouth the good guys. The original Annunaki with "An" or "Anu" is this guy here [points to image], different time, different place, different cultural interpretation. He has come to this planet many times. He is known as "An" and "Anu" and "Osiris". So Osiris is An. His lower aspect is "Horus" or he's "Enki", the equivalent, for all the people who are into that stuff.

Be careful what you read; because you have got to understand that texts have been manipulated over thousands of years. Be really careful, because people go, "Oh look, it's written in stone." Well, we didn't have books back then, so they wrote in stone. So how do you know a stone tablet wasn't created, and there was a guy pointing with a spear at another guy saying, "You are going to write this, or else...." Just because it is written in stone doesn't mean it is true. The only real truth you will ever, ever, ever know is in here [the heart]. I'm standing up here today, and I'm talking from here. And I don't care what anyone says about me, because you will not take away my sovereignty, and you will not take away my truth. And I know the truth that's in here, is in you,[referring to audience] and in you and in you, and in every one. We've all got it. It is just a matter of getting in touch with it. Mine's been activated because of all my experiences. Soon it is all going to spill into the public arena, and yours will be activated. Yours will be activated in a different way than mine was, that's all, that's all it is.

Now, when the ships turn up, they are going to have a really intense layer of control. So we're all waiting, right? We're all waiting, for the ships to turn up to activate everybody, and many will be activated. It will be the trigger. But, you've got to understand that the level of control will be more powerful too. It's getting more intense all the time. Think of all your digital plasma screens, wow, the energy that comes out of those things! I definitely did not go in that direction, that's crossing the line. When you go from analog to digital, they've got you good, they've got you really good. When you sit there, you are being programmed constantly by those things, right? So when the ships turn up, it's going to have a dampening effect. Not as many people that you think would awaken will awaken. You'd think that, with the biggest thing ever happening, as in ETs turning up, but some people will just go, "Oh yeah, okay, but what about my haircut? What about my GT Monaro? I want to get a set of mags for it!" You know? They'll just continue to have other priorities, "So what? a couple of ETs turned up", and you are going to stand there and go, "Are you alright? Do you understand what this means for humanity and the planet? Come on!" And they won't get it, so be patient with them and just let them be.

Here is another clever part of their manipulation. "It's just an illusion. This isn't really real." Oh, that one, that one just used to just fry my nerves. That used to get me so upset. That is such poison! That concept! That is the philosophy of the Grays. Be careful. They're gonna say, "You're all God. We're all one. This is just an illusion, it's just a dream. It is not really real." Well, if it is, leave! That's what I say to people. I sit down having a meal with a guy, and he's saying, "I'm not really eating this" and I say, "What? Hello, excuse me?" "I'm not really eating this. I'm not really here. It's just an illusion." What do you do with that?

So, why did they say that? Why are they brainwashing people with those philosophies? Because it totally undermines who you are and why you have chosen to come here, the reason and the purpose and the intention of your existence here on Earth. It undermines the whole process of the Divine Plan, because they are the powerful ones with their technology. There is no way in hell they are going to accept the fact that you are becoming a God. No way in hell, are they going to accept the fact that this planet has power in her own right and is the manifestation of the Divine Mother carrying us all in her womb. No way.

So, please, when you hear about the "Now" moment, (there is a lot of good stuff, the "Now" moment is real, don't get me wrong, and there is a lot of good stuff in the "Now" moment teachings). But, you have got to understand that every philosophy that gets released, all begins to get manipulated over time. So be very careful with all these high-end, mind-bending philosophies, because it's all about "the moment" out there in the world. They are everywhere, (there are) seminars for them, the whole lot. You name it. This is our reality, and it's real. We chose to come here. You exist here because you needed to come here and learn. Your soul needs it. That's why you are here. You're part of a bigger process, and you are taking responsibility for everything you have done and everything you have been. All your creations, they are all being integrated into oneness and harmony in this lifetime.

Now, the Moon, this is a big one, I'm going out on a limb here okay. Everybody loves the Moon. No, not everybody, but especially in the spiritual circles the Moon is this wonderful thing. Now there's a big story behind the Moon, a really big story. I'm just going to say that what I'm about to tell you about the Moon is because I have been to the Moon. Beings came and took me, and they took me to the Moon. (And in that) I've just lost a lot of people through that statement alone, but that's their journey and I respect that. Have you ever heard the little wives' tale that talks about little green men who live on the Moon? There are a few people nodding their heads. That is true. The beings that came and took me were about that high [holds hands up to hips] and had really round heads, had eyes like ours, and when they smiled, they had lots of little teeth, actually fourteen teeth across the front, not like us where we have five or six that show. And they took me there, and they took me there for unpleasant, unsavory circumstances, but my Higher Self came in. And I can tell you that the Moon has never been the same again.

And there are other people that have been involved in situations like that. Like I said, we all do work behind the scenes, and I'm not saying that to make myself, big and tough or anything like that, far from it. Because I'm going to share with you the history of the Moon, where it comes from, who built it, and why it is sitting around the Earth, and I'm going to do that in the next section. Thank-you everyone....

Part Three: The Grand Deception Continued

I would like to say a special thank you to Loraine and Julie and the Quantum Bookstore for their wonderful support. Every time I walk into that place, I feel amazing energies; if I'm not feeling really balanced, I will walk in there and even just sitting there for a few minutes I feel my energies just re-balance. It's an amazing place, there's 5th dimensional energies already pouring into that place. So, I just want to give my special gratitude and thanks to Loraine and Julie at Quantum. I'd like to thank Carmel, for the effort that this amazing lady has put in with her wonderful sandwiches, and the help in the kitchen there, thank you so much Carmel, you are an angel; and I'd like to thank Damien and Trish, for being a part of this as well, to offer their help to film it, Damien you are amazing! And thank you very, very much, I very much appreciate the effort, and you too Trish, thank you. Yeah, it's going to go a long way I think. This is only the beginning.

Now, I just want to finish off with the Moon. I'll talk for about an hour and a bit, and then we'll have question time, because I'm sure people have got questions; and we'll just run it through from there. Now the Moon was once a space craft, it was once the jewel of the forces... or, that's not really the right word to use... not the forces. It was the jewel in the crown of the fleet of the beings of the True Light. And it was, you could almost call it a scientific laboratory. It was created by one of the Seven Muses, or Seven Sisters from the Pleiades, who you know as Diana, the Moon Goddess; who is a lower aspect of the being known as Archangel Ariel. This amazing being, created this space ship to go around seeding life on planetary bodies. So, it's originally a Pleiadian craft. Now, when that Moon came here ... it first seeded life here, the flora and the fauna, for what we're talking about, the eco-system ... The love! ... like I said, when we take on a responsibility on that level, you inject the energy of your being into whatever it is you are doing. So Diana, the Moon Goddess; a large portion of the energy stream of that being is what makes up our eco-system here on Earth and the Divine Mother is the foundation behind all that.

Now, when the Earth started plunging into the lower vibratory levels, with the Reptilian races and all the Draconian and all that heavy stuff came here and wanted to take over the planet. Her heart was dying. She was heartbroken. And the beings that she thought would come, and defend Earth, didn't, because these beings new the greater plan. And so, Diana made a decision to come here with that ship. She armed it to the best of her ability, because naturally she's not a fighter, obviously. She came here with that ship to defend the Earth against these beings and in that process, unfortunately, she lost the battle. And in that process, they were able to gain incredible genetic knowledge, of not only us, our humanoid form here on Earth (the human race), but other races as well, because that was like I said, a laboratory. And it had its own eco-system; it had its own environment on there. It was once, like I'm saying, the jewel; and the love you have for the Moon is that ancient memory.

Now the Moon is not what it once was. After the Reptilians, Grays and that entire group ... they put it around Mars. And they had it around Mars for some time, and they trashed I, they totally trashed it. What you see up there in that sky now, is nothing to what it once was and they smothered it with silica and these sorts of substances. Now, what they did is they took the Moon; and mind you the drive system was removed, and the drive systems are certain crystals being stored. You know how we have safes here on this planet to hide things in? Well, the way we do it in the higher levels is we create a vibratory reality, and you can just make a little pocket of a vibration to which you need, to the rest of the Universe. And no-one needs to know about it, it's a little hiding place. You can create a little frequency spectrum, a little tiny bubble of energy or reality and you hide things in there. And that's how we do it. So, these crystals are held at a certain frequency, now when the right time comes that being will match with that frequency, and yes she is incarnated here on Earth, and she will access those crystals and that Moon will need to be driven out of here. Otherwise it will be destroyed when the Earth becomes a star and where it's going go, is it's going go back to Mars.

Because the beings who live inside the Moon; I know I said little green men right? But they are just the little worker guys. When I went there and I had my higher-self come into it, I got up off the table ... okay I know I'm diverting but ... and I was confronted by, eventually, because I had been searching and seeking this guy out, (he was) like a Draconian, and the physical appearance was really close to what you call a wraith on "Star-gate Atlantis", right? So, it's amazing these people who make the movies and where they get there information from. (He had) long flowing hair and they threw everything they had at me! And the heat I could feel coming off of my body! Remember my Greater Being came in and I had my protective energy and my aura; and the heat that I could feel coming from my body! And these beings were running around going crazy, because nothing they did ... they threw everything at me ... and I'm just still walking around ... they could not believe it. Because, they've taken me many, many times and all of a sudden for me to just get up and walk around, they could no longer stop me. I tell you what, that really freaked them out.

So ... and I walked through walls ... you can walk through walls... remember we can do anything! When you are in that state of being; and it's not George here; me George that did this. George is just a lower aspect of this individual personality for this incarnation. The Greater part of me took over and did this, not another being taking over me, but my higher self. It's no different to someone who's going to be in a car accident but somehow they say, "Oh, the hand of God reached in and interfered and saved me by a miracle!" No, it's not the hand of God, it's your hand. Because it's through your higher being you're connected to God; so your higher self is always looking after you when it needs to.

So, here I am and I'm walking through walls and I'm seeking this guy out and I'm confronted with him. On one side of the wall ... and the walls were like a bathroom, you know, it's translucent but not transparent. It had a little wavy sort of appearance to it. And he's defeated! He's on the other side of the wall just slumped like that, long hair just flowing. And I said to him, "okay, now do you understand?" and he said "yes", I said "now I'm going to share with you who you are". And I was able to connect with him and take him back to all the eons of time in the lower universes. Everything he's done everything he's been and reconnecting from the point in time when he first journeyed into the lower universes. That, what's termed as "the fall", which is really "the dive"; (no-one's being seduced into this journey alright? That's another con)... when he first chose to come down to the lower universes and he fell apart! And you guys can do this too, and I'm sure you're doing it out there as well. It's not just me doing this work.

Now, when he remembered who he who he truly was, I said "Are you ready now to return to the Light?" and he said "Yes". And I walked through the wall and I hugged him and helped heal all his energies and everything. Now this guy in the Moon was the head guy, a part of this empire, who is the reason why we haven't had many "good" spaceships flying around at all is because not only do they have equipment that sees the "good" spacecraft around— and they go and target them and chase them and shoot them out of here, chase them out of here— this guy has very powerful foresight and he can see the whole spectrum in the 4th dimension, he's one of the really powerful beings.

Now, when I took this guy out, it wasn't long after that we had ET's come and visit a group of people that I was seeing. And they were really nervous, you know? And it's like all of a sudden they had access and they were wondering how the hell they had access when they didn't before. I knew what was going on because of what I did, but I couldn't tell too many people because that's ego, right? Apparently, I keep getting accused of having all of this ego, all I want to do is be me and share but, no, no, it's all ego.

So, the Moon; that guy got taken out and now everything's being changed. And now these other beings have heard what's happened and they're not happy and there are other things going on that you're all about to see. So, the Moon was then placed into orbit around the Earth ... And the why it was done like that ... now the female reproductive cycle; originally there was no period pain for the women. It was a euphoric feeling and ovulation was euphoria. (It was) the creation of life. Okay? I'm tingling from head to toe as I'm saying this! Euphoria! I don't know if you women, after being tortured for so long, if you can try and get your heads around that; euphoria as opposed to pain and agony. My hair is standing on end. So the reproductive cycles were in harmony with the 28 gradation, rotation of the Sun. That's what it was synchronized with, with the Christ energy, the Sun, the Son of God.

Now, they took it to the Earth because they wanted to suppress the feminine; they plugged it into the reproductive cycles of the feminine energy (of the) 28 day cycle. And that's why the orbit is circular. That is the mechanical device that they are using to suppress the feminine energy. It is your "ball and chain"; it is your "shackles". The Moon is not what it once was. When you're there and you're doing your Moon dances once a month, it breaks my heart.

Because at the moment when you do that, they're manipulating you on this ancient memory but you are the slaves now worshipping the master! And I'm sorry, part of me is so sorry because I know so many women feel that connection, that deep connection to the Moon. But I cannot possibly stand here and tell you anything other but what's really going on. I can't do that, I have to be real, have to be truthful. I can't tell you what you want to hear, I have to tell you what you desperately need to hear. You have to let go of the Moon.

And it's served an excellent process, because it not only served the feminine in an amazing way, it served us men in an amazing way. The lunatic is in our heads, right? Luna-tic, think about that. It forced us all to dig deep; without that Moon being placed in orbit around the Earth, we would never have had the experiences we have had here on this planet, in this reality. We would never have had that. That is the mechanical device that is making all of this happen. And I used to watch Bugs Bunny as a kid and there's Marvin the Martian with his Earth-Space Modulator on the Moon. And he's got this big ray gun and he's beaming it down on the Earth. I mean, they're telling us! They're telling you! What's going on? Cheeky buggers. They love stirring us up through these films. It's right in your face, in plain sight.

So, the Moon also pulls the tides, right? Now the ocean, the water, is the emotional body of the feminine. And that's why you have these incredible upheavals emotionally at the time of your ovulation and other times. And that's why men have such a hard time connecting with women, with their emotional bodies. Because we don't get the torture—the emotional torture that women are going through—we don't get it. I get it now and still I'm scratching the surface. I've been working with the Divine Feminine so deeply, so incredibly deeply for many years now and intensely over the last couple of years. I'm telling you, we have no idea what they're going through. I'm still at kindergarten with it. The fragmentation of the emotional body of the woman is so fragmented, it's in agony. So please, be patient and respect the feminine; your loved ones. Understand what they're going through.

Now that Moon, as I said, has to be taken out. So, that's the history of the Moon; that's where it comes from, that's why it's there. And when that Moon gets taken out of here, for those who are not in the 5th dimension and are still out here in the Matrix, when that Moon leaves—and I was shown this, I went through it. And probably, nowhere to the degree that women are gonna go through this, right? But I lived it—and I felt this incredible pulling, coming out of this part of my being; a combination of the solar plexus, the sacral, and the root chakra. It was horrendous; you can physically feel the pulling. And that's what every woman is going to feel. And the emotion that I felt was sobbing tears of joy, finally, freedom from oppression! Finally! And that's coming. And you will sob tears of joy, if you haven't already gone through what I've mentioned. So, have a think about that. And like I say, all this information that I share; whoever does their little pendulum thing, whatever method you use to clarify truth from fiction; you do it, you go for it with everything that I've said, because I know where I'm coming from.

Alright, that's the Moon. And I want to end that kind of energy in this room; I think I've said enough with that sort of paradigm. So, I think it's time to change the energy patterns and go to something much brighter. [A guy in the audience says something to GK] Thanks mate! Now, the ascension process has, like I said, steps to it. We talk about the dimensional doorways so, you know, [draws vesica piscis symbol] what are all these dimensional doorways? They are, essentially, made up like that, as we all know. You're all familiar with that sign, with that symbol. And it has something to do with this symbol. Now, I put this symbol up on my last talk and people are wondering, “What was that symbol that he drew? ... Because he didn’t tell us what it was.”... I talked about the medicine wheel and everything.

This was the other symbol; this is the Earth and this is the path that we are on. And we are right about here at the junction. And you will have three paths to choose from. You will have the path of Technology; (the) technocrats, all their wonderful technology, amazing stuff! It dazzles everybody. And then you will have the beings of, what we refer to as, Conditional Love or the False Light. Me? What path am I taking? Well, I’m staying right here on Mother Earth and I’m choosing the middle path, thank you very much. I am not going anywhere. So you can go with the Grays and all their wonderful technology if you like; like those people that are off in Mars already and many more that are going to be going there. And not just there, other planetary systems too because it’s not just Grays and Mars, it’s not just that. I’m just generalizing with those because that’s what’s in the psyche of everybody at the moment. There’s a whole lot of other races involved too take you to all the different regions as well.

Or you can go with the false light and I assure you, the overwhelming majority will go with these guys. I’ve traveled into the future, with my consciousness and this journey was so horrendous for me because I didn’t cope very well with it at all, because I wasn’t as evolved as I am now. And I freaked out! It took me a week to get over it, to settle down my energies. And I saw spaceships in the skies everywhere it was well into 2012 and people were like zombies just walking’. And I remember going’ around shaking them, “Come on, these aren’t the real guys! What are you doing? Don’t get on board the ships!” And there were tidal waves coming in because I was on a headland. There were ships everywhere. People were just walking in lines to get on board the ships. They were like in a trance. And the energy of the environment at the time was really, really uncomfortable. That’s what is going to happen to these people. That is their path. And it took me a week to get over it at least. And it was interesting, I had a friend—because this happened to me on a Friday— then I had a friend, on Monday I spoke to, and they had a similar experience three days apart.

Now, you all know that this is perfect balance [points to vesica piscis] and of course you wipe all that out and you’re left with pretty much...the fish of Christianity. Everybody knows that, right? You see it on stickers on the back of cars, that’s where that symbol originally comes from. They just haven’t completed the circles. That’s all it is. So the people who designed that sticker know originally where it comes from, but for the layman they haven’t got a clue. They think it’s got to do with Pisces, the Piscean Age. That’s what they think it’s got to do with. It does, because it happened in that period, but it’s not the main reason. The main reason is the womb of the mother, the almond, the amygdala. Well sure the almond also represents the flame—I’m not just focusing on one area—the main (is the) amygdala (Magdalene) the womb of the mother. Jesus and Mary Magdalene were twin flames. Mary Magdalene is that being but in its feminine aspect. Mary Magdalene was the walking incarnation of Mother Earth. And what did they do? They called her a prostitute. They’ve always got to put down the feminine; undermine her power.

So, when we go through the ascension process, everybody—and it doesn't matter what relationship you are in, what kind of a relationship you are in, it doesn't matter, there's no judgment here, Okay?—what you will naturally want to do inside of yourself, is gravitate to your twin flame. And people say to me, “Well, hang on. I've got past life memories of being a woman,” when it's a man standing in front of me. And I'm going, “Well, you as an individual did not have that life, you're blending with is your feminine counterpart.” People can't grasp the concepts of the fact that as an incarnation here on this planet that they think that it's just this body and then there's androgyny. I can tell you that I've been to planets where the whole race is androgynous, but only the physical, only in the physical. The expression of the being, they're divided into masculine and feminine. Just because the physical container says androgyny does not mean that they are androgynous. Far from it, it's always got to do with the expression of the being. So it doesn't matter what body they come in.

So, you will naturally gravitate, because you've got male and female. Christ energy is in perfect balance. You're going to want to do this. I've had people come to me and say, “Man, you know I'm in this relationship, but I can feel this other woman calling me. I can feel it. I can feel it so deep.” And this is what we call Divine Sacred Union. So we have ... and that's in perfect balance ... true ascension can only be achieved by the Golden Mean Spiral of the masculine, coming together with the Golden Mean Spiral of the feminine, coming together in Divine Sacred Union; and that is the Holy Grail. And I'm not saying that to undermine any relationship, any marriage, anything like that. It does not undermine that. And that's where the church has gone wrong because on one level they know this, but they've forced it on people to the nth degree. They won't allow people to have relationships in freedom on this world. They won't allow that because they're control freaks. You know that. So, like I said no judgment. Whatever relationship you're in, you will automatically have this awakening take place inside of you. And you will just know. You will look in each other's eyes and say, “Darling, it's time for me to go”; especially when it comes time to walk through those dimensional doorways. And you will be happy, each partner will just be happy to go your own separate ways. And I know that's hard to take for a lot of people, they don't quite get what I'm saying. And a lot of people go, “Oh, you know, he's talking about dissolving a marriage, you know, the sacred thing.”

Well, Mary Magdalene and Jesus were two sides of the same flame; they were twin flames, one being, Isis and Osiris. And that's what the sister wife thing is all about. Sister wife, what does it mean? When you find your perfect counterpart, that person will be your father, your husband. If you are a woman, he will play the role as your father, he will play the role as your husband, your lover, your brother, and your son; and vice versa, your mother, your sister, your daughter, your lover, the whole lot. It is just so beautifully harmonious and counter balanced. It surpasses everything. And there are a lot of ET races that talk about poly-amorism. Free loving. Well, if you want to continue to live a poly-amoristic life, then you will not experience Divine Sacred Union and you will not ascend. And I'm sorry, it's like “You will and you will and you will.” And all these orders are being thrown around. I'm just telling you what I know, what's deep in here (his heart), what all of you soon will know as well, deep in here (the heart). And I know, I've spoken to a lot of people and they already know it. There are a lot of people who know this stuff already. This is well known.

So, this symbol (vesica piscis) is really important because that explains our journey from the sacred union through to ascension, perfect balance. Now I've written that up there too, because we see our society all of a sudden start to fall apart. And it is, isn't it? Everything's crumbling! So, it starts, you know with finances, the economies, and all that. And we can see that the ecosystems are now starting to fall apart. And it's just going to compound and compound. But I can assure you that Mother Earth is refraining and holding back and the majority of the Earth changes, so to speak, happen right at the end.

Alright, so you've got time between now and then to get yourselves organized. To get the awareness happening that this is coming. And I'm sharing this with you ... not to say ... "But my career, Oh, the plans that I had!" Hey, mine, too! You know? There are a lot of things that I wanted to do in life. There are a lot of things my kids wanted to do in life. One of them is like, "Oh Dad, I think I'm just going to miss out on getting my license!" Like for a teenage boy, I can tell you ... that is a big thing to miss out on ... that hurts... that really hurts. So for the people who are in the know, they know what's coming but don't stop living life. Do not stop sucking the most out of this reality. Because the way this reality is now, has never, ever, ever existed before. Never in creation; there's been similar cycles that have come and gone, but never has it been so intense. So don't stop living; get out there and just suck every moment out of life. Because it will never be like this ever again. There will be similar cycles in the future, but never like this, exactly like this. So go for it. And Mohammad once said, "If you're in the middle of planting a tree and the world's coming to an end, finish planting the tree." And I'm out there; I'm still landscaping my garden, I'm planting trees that I know are going to be destroyed, I'm not going to stop, I'm still nurturing and creating life. See, that's the process, don't give up, go for it. Really suck every moment out of this place. That's what it's here for, that's what we're here to do; enjoy it, really enjoying it.

Now, I would like to read something out to you—this is a really big honor for me—which comes from our Divine Mother Sophia. It didn't come through me personally; it came through someone that I know who's incredibly connected to the consciousness of this planet and the Divine Mother [Laura Magdalene Eisenhower].

"The separation in creation of spirit and matter, male and female imbalance and suppression of the divine feminine, has produced the circumstances that we currently exist in. War, environmental changes, epidemics, extinctions, global crisis and threats and dualities such as good and evil, seem to define the reality of our world. We are now truly awakening to the tasks that lay ahead to break free and ride the wave of this great shift on the organic path of light, into our higher destiny. Fear, ignorance and separation is the result of the dark void and mystery being so misunderstood, that one becomes vulnerable to losing themselves to evil forces...

Without understanding it as the Mother womb that needs our union with her, we are subject to the torments of suffering, pain and confusion, which produce a kind of hell. The inorganic entities, archons, demiurge and lower creative powers with all their deceptions, just try and run the show and we lose our truth, wisdom and the protection of spirit when we forget who we are....

Good ends up getting lost in what evil produces and it becomes an inner war and struggle, creating external chaos and the need for the great quest for truth, hope and divine love. These conditions are the nightmare of Gaia. I do the soul work to awaken us to her as Sophia, [GK: It's understanding the difference between Gaia and Sophia. Gaia is the planetary personality and Sophia, Christ Sophia, is the Heavenly Mother.]

Faced with the struggle to dismantle the false matrix, recover my multi-dimensional aspects and alchemically transform the world....

She and I are ONE, she needs our help and we need hers to complete this. Nature is divine will, the breath and life-force of Gaia-Sophia. This is where we need to be in union with her to strengthen the immune system of her body and our own, to wipe away the germs and enemy and live the true dream....

Creating inner union of male/female and merging good with evil, light and dark, fear with love, gives us the experience of balance and neutrality, which allows the negatives to dissolve and be the regenerative kundalini force of the underworld that produces good things. The forces of darkness are therefore not denied or misused, they are simply returned to the Mother Goddess to purify and they stay underground where they belong. This is... [GK: And underground doesn't mean underground. Okay? The underworld does not mean in the Crust. It's a reality.] This is the power of the fertile womb that can birth magic, divinity and enlightenment into the fabric of matter, drawing in the rays of heaven, the true essence of Gaia. Evil and negative forces are dissolved into the great void because the darkness is no longer misunderstood and mishandled....

[GK: The darkness serves you. Understand how it serves you.] The refusal to surrender and the need to control everything and have power has to be given over to the trust of Spirit and the divine plan, so that we act in union with the Earth, instead of abusing all that Gaia provides and all falling prey to the forces of the grand deception. When the center point of harmony and balance is achieved and our power becomes love and wisdom, the tree of knowledge and our soul path becomes ONE with the tree of life....

The union of heaven (our higher self), the underworld (our deep soul, Mother womb and unconscious) and the Earth (our body and home) is what we all seek to achieve as co-creators. My path as Sophia has secured this for life, as I have taken the journey of the world soul that we need to assist in the completion thereof. With the will to become one with the flow of death, transformation, balance and renewal, one can shed the old voices of authority, the forces of the false matrix and the negative technologies that have tried to have power over us. We can allow destruction to transform us internally first, rather than have destruction externally try and teach us where we still have to grow. When we release the pain of separation, find the God/Goddess within and recognize the eternal connection that is always with us, we can triumph over the forces that limit and control our creative energy. This is not physical death and destruction; it is the power that releases us from the forces that no longer serve us....

Bringing love and union to the places that are in darkness and that feel abandoned, lost or forgotten, is how we can emerge from our own deep sleep and then reclaim our spiritual fire and creativity. By aligning to the healing power of love that surrounds us, we can step out of the way of ourselves and become not an obstacle, but an agent of the divine will. This is the intent of the Mother, who by essence, unconditionally loves nurtures and protects us. Only when we turn our back on this, do we experience danger and threat, and contribute to the wounds of the Earth. This is the age of awakening to how we stop this pattern of destruction. This whole journey over time, the path of free will, the work of the world soul and the intention of Nature and Spirit, leads us to a magnificent era, of which we are on the cusp. The deceptions and traps that remove us from our highest destiny are going to be exposed and as things get shaken up, my love and truth as the Mother Goddess Sophia will always remain and protect us through this great shift and transition.” [End of reading]

Remember I told you about the Council of 12. Well, this is something really important to understand, who these beings are (the managers of the universe) because the Council of 12 really are the embodiments of 12 different archetypal streams of the Universal Consciousness. That’s what they embody. And I’m sure you’ve heard about “Oh, we’re being dumbed down to two strands of DNA, when we’re meant to have twelve.” Well guess what? Each being is a strand of DNA. So when we get fully activated with all our DNA strands, we’re going to be functioning with all the wisdom of all 12 archetypes at all times. We will be integrating with the whole Universal structure. So all these DNA researchers say that you’ve got two DNA strands, I can assure you there’s a whole bunch of people in this room that operate using six or seven already. Don’t listen to what the scientists on this planet are telling you. Because otherwise you’re operating from a split personality of only two archetypes and that is not possible. We have a whole range happening here, some more than others. Some have a stronger archetype or DNA strands activated than others do. There is so much deception going on in this world. 12 archetypes, 12 DNA strands, an archetype is a DNA strand and will be functioning from all 12 at all times. That is the wisdom of a human being.

Just bear with me for just two seconds, because I’ve got something that’s so profound I’d like to share with you. People say, “Yeah, Father Sun/Mother Earth, I don’t believe it.” And, I know I’ve spoken of Gematria. I’ve got to work for something else (looking through papers), because I haven’t done any number crunching in a while, I’ve been working with the Feminine for a long time now so my number crunching has gone a little bit astray. So, Gematria is numbers assigned to the value of letters in the ancient Greek alphabet and the ancient Hebrew alphabet. If you understand Gematria, you can decode the Old Testament and you can decode the New Testament. The reason they did that [Hebrews and Greeks] was because they knew it was going to be manipulated; so if you hide a code in the scripts, then it’s harder for the scripts to be manipulated. Now the value of the Magdalene is 153. And you’ve heard of the 153 fishes in the net; and I just want to say Margaret Starbird, you are a legend! The work that she’s done in this area is amazing. And David F... [last name inaudible], you are a legend. The work that he’s done in this area is amazing.

Now I’ve talked about this on my website, can’t go into the whole lot here, but on my website all the harmonic equations is there. And this cycle goes for 24,832 years. And everyone talks, “No, it’s 26,000 years”, “25,920 years”. Everyone’s using that number. And why are they using that number? Well, in the early 1900’s they calculated the precessional cycle at 25,800 years. Then in the 90’s, the 1990’s they recalculated the star patterns and the precessional cycle. And then they realized it’s 25,920 years. And they’re like, “Oh, because of the more modern technologies it’s more accurate. That’s it”. And this is where all the Mayan researchers are going wrong. And all they’ve got to do is search in their hearts, deep in their hearts; get past the scientific mind, logic, egoic thing that’s going on with each and every one of them and look deep inside their hearts and they will find that this is right. Because I assure you, the rest of the Universe, they know this; they know the cycle here, they know the duration. It’s no secret to everybody else; it’s just not understood by the people that are trapped in this paradigm. And they're trapped in the paradigms of the scientific world and all these studies that go on, within this on this planet.

There's acceleration. I'm sure everybody's experiencing time speeding up, right? Everybody; the hours are shorter in the day and they truly are. And there's an acceleration factor because we need to achieve ... when you want to exit linear time, you have to exit at 90 degrees. If you want to time-travel with your ... like when I traveled in my greater being, my greater being just exits at 90 degrees. And the time is speeding up, so for this planetary body to reach critical mass, it has to speed up. And it's spinning around the Sun, proportionally at the same time it's spinning on its axis faster. So you don't actually realize it's happening. And we're on like a J-curve; it's like a logarithmic J-curve. And the acceleration factor is 24,832 years, that's the fixed timeline; from there to there. And we're on this one, which is called the illusionary timeline and that's where it steps in. And yes, it is an illusion; to a certain degree. Not the extent that, you know, I was talking about previously. And we are going through an acceleration process and that is plus 6.18%, which is 1 over Phi—for the people who are into that sort of thing. The Phi is the Golden Ratio, that's the heart. That's the numbers involved with creating that spiral, the Golden Spiral. Now, when you recalculate—like if today, they were to recalculate the precession—they would find that it's 26,100 years or something. Because when this is completed on the 21st of March, 2013, it will be 26,366.618 years. And again, we have the Golden Ratio on the end.

So I just needed to clear that up for those people who are really into that kind of thing. Because I keep seeing all these fantastic researchers and they're stuck on those 25,920 years. And if they were just to move across and look at those numbers; just consider them in their calculations and bam, it will all just open up for them. Everything will just go clunk, clunk, clunk, clunk, clunk, clunk; all the cogs would just sit into place and all the pieces of their puzzles would come together. But a lot of them just don't like the fact that, "who's this guy from down under that's saying this stuff? Who does he think he is?" Well, it's inside each and every one of you, this knowledge. Please, it's not an egoic thing.

Now, knowing that that's the cycle; and knowing that that number Phi, is the Christ vortex number; so we're basically taking the Christ energy and we're injecting it into the duration of the cycle. So the outcome of that is—the value of the 15 just happens to be the sum of your DNA codons. That number, that's what it equals. You get 153, which is the Magdalene, right? Just a coincidence; 34 is the DNA wavelength. So the wavelength of the DNA from there, to there is 34 angstroms. So you can see when you take that duration of the cycle and you inject the Christ energy into it, it plugs in. It plugs into your DNA, it plugs into the Divine Feminine, and it plugs into everything; if people would just look at those numbers. They're missing out on a lot, they really are. And the 47 is the flock and in the Hebrew alphabet, [says a Hebrew word], the "Magdalene" is the tower of the flock; just another "coincidence". Now if you take the duration of the cycle of 24,832 again and you put the 64 codons into it, you get 388. And in Gematria that is the Sun—Just another coincidence, right?

So, I could rattle stuff off all day to do with Gematria and the numbers, but I'm not going to do that. So let's keep it simple. I've mentioned before that the Universal Consciousness has manifested itself as Father Sun/Mother Earth in order to personally facilitate our return to oneness and ascension into the Golden Age. So that's what I've got on my website; with these articles, right? So I've got written ... check this out. If people don't think that this is Mother Earth and that's Father Sun. 24,832 again ... and the Gematria value for "Sophia" is 781. And the answer you get is 31.8, which is Helios; the Greek word for the Sun; just another "coincidence". So let's take 24,832 again and this time we'll inject into it the number 681—because that's the Gematria equivalent of the word "planet" in Greek. And let's see what we get. We get 365 days, that's where you get 365 days of the year and 365 is Mithras, the Sun God; the Gematria equivalent; just another coincidence, right? No, Gematria's not real, can't be real.

Right, let's try this one on for size. Let's take the cycle again, 24,832, and let's put the word "Jesus Christ" into it. And that is 2,368. Now, you get 10.486486486486 ... And on it goes, recurring... right? Now 10 is the value of Gaea written in Greek—you can spell it that way, you can spell it with an 'I', it doesn't matter; I'll get into both numbers in a minute they both match up beautifully. Just another "coincidence", you put "Jesus" into the cycle, you get "Gaia". What does the 486 mean? Petra; and who was "the rock" behind Jesus? Mary Magdalene. Mary Magdalene is "the rock", not Peter the apostle. Mary Magdalene is the true rock of Christianity. Forever; I don't care what anyone else says. Forever; the truth will always be the truth. If you want to break it up again, it also equals "honey"; the sweet nectar of Life. What a beautiful woman she is! 1048 just happens to be the word "microcosm". Isn't that what we're doing here? It's a fractal of the rest of the Universe; this is the microcosm of the macrocosm. It just goes on and on and on.

Right, let's get 781, which is Sophia, right? And let's put into it 388, which is the Sun. And that gives us 2.012; there's your 2012, 886. Now in Gematria, when you're using harmonics, you can go one or two on either side of the numeric value and it still applies, it's still valid. It's like an analog phone to the digital; you can still hear it, still connect. But digital phones, they just drop out. So we're talking harmonics, we're talking relationship. So when you get numbers that are close, they're still valid. So in harmonics, triple 8 would still be valid here; and that is Jesus. And you get 2012. And 128 is 1 from 127, which just happens to be 127, for all those number buffs equal the square root of Phi, of the Christ vortex. It just goes on folks!

And now I wish to share with you what I feel is incredibly important. This is what I understand about our friend, Phi. Sorry, just got to change the tape. I'll do this one thing and then we'll get into questions. Okay, now I wish to share with you what I feel is incredibly important. This is what I understand about our friend, Phi. [Draws picture] I'll read it out. Phi to me is about the relationship between the feminine, which is the circle and the masculine, the line. It is the Divine ratio of our heavenly Mother and our heavenly Father. If we take Phi and inject it into the sphere of the Mother; the complete circle, completion, wholeness or oneness, the result speaks for itself. [Writes result on board]; and there's more, like I've got pages of these equations! I could just keep going, but I don't want to do it to you. I think I've made my point. You can't deny it any longer. Well, you can, you can live in denial of it if you like. But, I mean it's beyond any sort of coincidence. It's ridiculous!

Questions and Answers

Alright, so question time everybody! Please ask me anything—don't hold back—go for it. And if I can answer it, I will. I'll do my best. We're going to bring around a mic for you.

[Audience question] “With the ascension process, obviously you’re an adult; you choose what you’re doing. As parents, you can naturally ask about what happens to the children?”

[GK] Thank you, that’s a really good question. Because I’ve gone through these issues myself as a parent. Now, the way I truly feel about it deep in my heart is, whatever the soul journey of my child is, that’s what I will honor. As heartbreaking as it may be to have to let go of your child into the false light, or into technology, or even wants to be at a certain place in time where it’ll perish in the Earth changes; whatever takes place, that is the journey of that individual soul. That’s how I look at my children, I don’t look at them as me the earthly father, you know? I used to. I’ve had to move beyond that and look at the bigger picture of life and look at them as a greater being than just “my son” or “my daughter”. So I honor and I respect them and that’s me expressing unconditional love. If you truly love something, you will set it free.

[Same audience member] ... we have three children, two have ... [inaudible] “Oh mom, will you go, we want to come with you”... [Inaudible] it’s always “when you go, can we come with you?” So does that have relevance?

[GK] Yeah, what I know is there is going to be young children; like as parents, we’ve been on the planet longer than a lot of our children have. And the children that are being born today are so highly aware, that a lot of children will actually be guiding the parents when the time comes. Yeah, they know in their hearts where they’re going. Some are so strong, you know—their parents won’t break their will—as controlling as some of them are, they won’t break them. They’re in for a rude shock coming up in the next few years. Yeah. Anybody else like to ask a question?

[Inaudible audience question in regard to the 12 strand DNA activation]

[GK] Yeah, it’s actually already happening without even personality being aware of it. I don’t ... everyone throws out, you know, “lower ego” and all that business. I just like to call it the personality of this incarnation. So without you’re personality being aware of it, you’re already activating them and it’s happening. So, I know on a higher level the choice of who goes through and who doesn’t go through has already been made. So I’m here to tell you to relax! It’s cool, you know? If you’re going to go through, you’re going to go through; if you’re not meant to go through, you’re not going to go through. And it’s okay! And just enjoy; enjoy every moment of life that’s left in this reality. And it’s already happening, we’re already doing it. You don’t actually have to go sit in a cave and meditate for three years; you don’t have to go on any of these incredible spiritual journeys. If you want to, you can; I mean, that’s part of your journey then. But like I said to you, Joe Blogs, working in a factory, he’s going through! You know? And he’s not doing any of that stuff, doesn’t mean he’s no less evolved than what I am. You know? Yeah, so believe in yourself, trust in yourself and just know that your Greater Being—you, the real you—has already taken care of it. Yeah, we just got to surrender to that.

[Audience question] When you said you’ve got the three choices, going with the Grays, the false light and you said you were going to stay here. Right, so, does that mean when the Earth changes into a star, that you perish with that? Or what happens, maybe a bit of clarification?

[GK] No, what happens is, dimensional doorways are going to open up all over the Earth. And that is what this represents [points to vesica piscis image], the womb of the mother. These are the dimensional doorways that will ... that's a symbolic version of what is actually going to happen. I've spoken to some people and they've already said they've already seen ... like a good friend of mine had an experience where he walked out of one of the doorways to go and collect his mother. And he brought his mother to this field or grassland where this doorway was and he says, "Come with me mum, in here" and she's going, "Where? All I see is the paddock". You know? And he goes, "Don't you see it?" and she went, "No". And he just was torn between the love of his mother and his path. And he had to let go of his mum and turn around and walk back through that doorway into Avalon. So, we're going to walk through these doorways into Avalon and once we're on that level, we're in sanctuary. Because we're above the lower vibratory levels of the 3rd and 4th dimensional stuff that will take place here. Those dimensional doorways are a pathway to sanctuary.

[Same audience member] Right, and so the when the Earth changes ... like that three months where the Earth changes into a star is after we've walked through the doorways?

[GK] Yeah, because she'll be cleansing herself on this level, but when the actual time ... like earthquakes and tidal waves and everything ... because you've got to understand; when you're in the 5th dimension, there's no steel, there is no plastic, there is no electricity, there isn't anything like that. See, she's got to return her body back to the 5th dimension. So she will crush everything. Like, if there is a steel tower on the top of Mt. Everest? That will go. Everything has to go. Yep, and then we'll prepare for the ascension process, which is the activation of the star light body and that's when the outer crust melts...gone...yeah. And we go into this higher vibratory state. Because when you travel to the Sun—this Sun or any other star, or like where I come from, from Sirius is one of the stars, that's actually a planet on a higher level. You see? It's just that it's vibrating at a higher level but you see it as light. That's all. The Sun here is a planet too. I've got friends who have traveled there and read scrolls and spent time there and journeyed there. People have gone through the Sun, because it's a doorway as well; it's a star gate, it's the real star gate. And this planet is now "the star gate". This planet is becoming a star as well. And that's—with the feminine taking that plunge into the lower universe as that sacrificial journey and then coming back up in divine union to be equal with her loved one once again, vibrating on the same level—that's why she's turning into a star. It's the return back to her loved one.

[Inaudible question from audience]

[GK] Yeah, I've got friends, and myself personally, who have traveled through the Sun already, and taken that journey many times, with our higher consciousness. So when the time comes and these doorways--you will just be automatically, in here [the heart], you'll just be guided to go somewhere and walk through. I've also journeyed into the future and I saw myself standing outside one of those doorways and there was another friend with me and there were lots of people running up to where we were and they were all preparing to walk through. And we had to settle them down because they were a little bit frantic, huffing and puffing, and that's what a lot of people in this room are going to be doing. We're going to walk through these doorways, then we're going to come back out and then we're going to help the people. Okay? And you will automatically know inside of you; don't let anyone tell you what to do. I can't tell you what to do, I just know what is going to be happening, you know? That's all. But I'm not here to tell anyone what to do. You just follow what's in here [the heart].

[Inaudible question from audience]

[GK] Yeah it will; It will feel different. Yeah, well heaven—what we refer to as heaven is the 5th dimension. But what we're moving into when we ascend is something totally brand new, it's never existed before. You know, you're talking about a whole planetary ...see the Christ figure or the Buddha or the Krishna or whatever, alright? That level, that's what you're going to become, equal with that. So Mother Earth is giving birth to a whole planetary race. That's why the darkness is so incensed at the moment, because one going around the Universe is bad enough; imagine having a whole planetary race of Christed beings running around roaming around the Universe. And when we do reach that Christhood, the idea is, and you'll be omnipresent and this will all happen simultaneously at the same time, you'll be given a void to go and create your own Universe. Okay? So instantly you reach the status of a Creator God and part of your consciousness will go off and do that.

Then you have duties and responsibilities in the lower universes: in the 4th and the 3rd. So part of you will go back to your home galactic systems and your home star nations—an aspect of your being—and you will go and you will teach the wisdom of life. And that's why it's a ripple effect. And this is on the Chalice lid in Glastonbury [draws image]. And of course every symbol has a multidimensional meaning and I'm just going to give you one that I think is really important here. If you look ... when you throw a stone in a puddle of water and you get the ripple effect that goes out. So here's the Sun and here's the Earth [indicates location on board], and when they become two Suns, the energy being of each one will ripple out and eventually this part here grows, grows out and out—this beautiful balanced state here—and so you've got the twin flames in here which have merged and become one and as they go out they grow and they become one big ripple and that will go out. And so the effect of the 4th dimension, when this transpires here, it will have a ripple effect not only energetically, but practically, pragmatically, functionally, throughout the whole Universe. What's going on here on this planet right now is the process of creating peace. It's bringing all the separation, and all the pain, and all the suffering to an end; the ripple effect.

Anybody else got any questions? Anything at all ... feel free. Otherwise I'm going to start talking again and you don't want that to happen!

[Inaudible question from audience]

[GK] ...some are 5th; the lowest one's the 5th. Yeah, that's as low as they go, in my model, in my understanding. I could be wrong, but that's how I see it. Yeah. And just so you get an understanding to— I've recently come across a mantis being who is part of the Orion League is. It's like the higher aspect of this being is the star you know as Rigel. And it's interesting because like you know, the mantis beings and these type of insect beings were the first, the very first physical structures that lowered down ...that came down to the lower universes because the reality was really harsh so that's why they had this really tough external shell, to accommodate life in that harsh environment. So the understanding is that this being on another level, is that star. And it's interesting because it's not only an insect being, but its star vibration attracts insect gray races as well, the Rigelian Grays.

So it's really interesting to understand the structure of our galaxies of our Universe and how, when your being resonates, because that's what we call gravity, right? We gravitate, your soul gravitates. People don't understand gravity. The scientists go on their heads "We don't know understand what gravity it." It's really simple. It's the law of attraction. That's all it is. They're going through all these crazy scientific formulas, this, that, and the other. I say, "Hey guys! The answer is really this simple! It's the law of attraction". So when a being resonates itself as a planetary body, it sends a signal out through the Universe. And all the souls that need that experience and that life and that journey will naturally want to gravitate and incarnate in that realm; that vibratory realm. It's that simple.

Okay. Oh, I've got to share this with you, if no one's got any more questions. Yeah, you got one? [Audience question] Yeah, I just want to know about your, or comment on other contactees out there, and their version of the truth that we've got? Does your version intertwine somehow?

[GK] There are a lot of them that overlap. Yeah. Because we're all on individual journeys, sometimes my perspective will be different from someone else's perspective in small ways. Some are really big because a lot of them are being contacted by the false Galactic Federation of Light. You see? So you've got to search deep in your heart to see what feels right for you. Okay? If you feel that what I'm sharing isn't right, and you resonate more with that other stuff, then that's great for your journey. That's good. You know?

[Same audience member] it's just that there's a lot of stuff floating around, and they're contradicting each other.

[GK] They are. Because what they're trying to do here is make everything as messy and confusing as possible. They don't want anyone to know who's who and what's what. They don't want anyone to get a grasp on it. They want everyone floating in the sea of Uncertainty, because when uncertainty breeds fear, you see? Okay? Then when you're not sure – you're not sure about yourself; you're not sure about anything that's going on. Then, you're like putty in their hands. But when you've got it like I've got it, rock solid; you're delusional ...that I'm delusional ... that I'm crazy, all this sort of stuff. Okay, I understand everyone's entitled to their own opinion. I fully love, honor and respect that, but they're not going to change me – they're not gonna change all those years of torture I went through. Okay? There are things that have happened to me that you can't imagine. No-one's going to change that and take that away from me.

So, I've seen many different races on many different levels. I interacted with really good races. Some of the Mantis races are the most incredible beings you will ever meet; the wisdom—trillions and trillions and trillions of years of wisdom and so much love. Okay? And then there are evil ones too. Okay? The best way to distinguish is what resonates in here [the heart]. That level of discernment surpasses everything. Make that – and I'm sorry I'm going to say these words, but it's appropriate – your bullshit monitor. Okay? Make it that in here. And not the heart chakra, here [indicates between the pectorals], I'm not talking about that chakra; I'm talking about the one up here [raises hand to thymus area], because we're integrating all seven into one. You see Buddha and Jesus; big chakras open on their chest here. This is what I'm talking about. Okay?

If you want to go home and do a good meditation; right? You just sit there quietly, and put your hands here, and press in here and focus your intention in there [demonstrates by placing hands on upper chest area]. Don't worry about traversing the Universe. Go in here [thymus], okay?

Jesus said, Buddha said, “The pathway to Heaven is within”. You go in there; that is your connection to your Higher Self – to your God-Being, okay?

[Inaudible question from audience]

[GK] It's above, yeah. It sits pretty much about where the microphone is. You feel it. You can press in your chest here and then you'll just touch a spot and ahh, it just feels different to everything else. Okay? It really does. And this is what I want to say to all the people who are healers—I've got a big message for you, okay? If you contact the person you are healing and you tune in to this part of their Being; you focus your intention there. And what you do is you bring the light from in there, out, because you are connecting to that person's Higher Being; you are then connecting to that person's Soul journey. That is the magic key to unlocking what is inside each and every one of us. It is limitless that energy source, in here, inside everybody. Connect with that part of the person when you do your healing and you will see amazing things occur. It is really that simple.

[Audience] I just want to get clarity by summing up the last thirty seconds. If I understand correctly—see the doorways, lots of doorways, it would just be our sanctuary, while we're there the Earth becomes a star. Then are we coming back onto a regenerated Earth, or are we all headed off into different directions?

[GK] Yeah. Once the planet becomes a star, you will be in an environment – and I travelled in to the future and I experienced it for myself, and I assure you I didn't want to come back. There are no shadows and that was a really freaky thing to get a handle on. Because you can go like this [cups hands tightly to create hole] and you look in there and there's the same amount of light in there as there is around you. There are no shadows, because there's no duality. And there's no Sun in the sky, of course; because, the whole reality is illuminated. You look under here [peers under pot plant], under a chair, under a lounge—there's no darkness, it's gone. And the whole eco-system feeds off light. Everybody is living off pure energy of light.

[Inaudible audience question regarding food]

[GK] No, you don't even need to breathe. You don't have to think about anything. All you do is just Be.

[Inaudible audience question regarding the “angelic”]

[GK] It's way beyond anything what you refer to as “angelic”. It's beyond all of that. On this reality, when you're with your partner, okay? And you just love each other, and you just embrace each other, and you don't even have to think or ask. If you need a knife and you work in the kitchen together, you go to turn around to grab a knife, and there your partner is handing you a knife already. You know that total, synchronistic, wonderful feeling when we're working together and loving one another in harmony. You just function in that mode. It's truly amazing. It's pure flow, because you're flowing with your counterpart. And your counterpart may be off in one part of the Universe, and you've got full awareness of every moment and everything that's going on. And everything that your counterpart is experiencing, you are experiencing instantaneously. It's total merging of Oneness, because remember, you'll be functioning just as the Universal consciousness functions. You think of all those dimensional levels. You think of – I mean, you take one square meter of life on this planet and the complexity; you'd blow your mind figuring out the way life interacts in that one little square meter. Let alone all of us, and the whole planetary body, and the whole galactic system and all those dimensional levels—the vastness of power of comprehension and design and harmony and functionality that we are talking about—that is how you're going to be operating; all of that instantaneously at your disposal. It really is big. And you're going to be told that this path—when those beings turn up –you're going to be told that this path is the path of the Anti-Christ. That's what you're going to be told.

[Audience] By the time the doorways open ... people have already left on the other two paths. Those who are still on the planet....

[GK] No, they would have already left.

[Same audience member] Yeah, but those still left on the planet will be the ones walking through the doorways?

[GK] Yeah or some will perish in the Earth changes. So, you could say there is a fourth path, but it's not going to be many. The amount of people that will perish in these changes will be far less than what is spoken of.

[Audience] What happens with the people who depart from the Earth in the Earth changes?

[GK] Ah, that's a good question! Now, the people that will leave and go with the spaceships, they will initially become agents of those beings. They will enslave you. And the way they do it is—like what is the difference between us and a communistic state? The difference is in a communistic state has a play area of that much [draws circle]; that's their level of freedom. Ours is this big. We're still contained. We got more toys to play with, we got more gadgets to play with, we are entertained more, but the truth is we're still enslaved. Now when these guys come along and promise you their version of ascension, then, you know, [makes large circle with arms] your playground is going to expand incredibly.

And for those people that don't have the ability to see the boundaries and understand that you're still going to be enslaved inside a system, because relative to what they've created here, this is going to be total freedom. People are going to take to it like candy. I'm telling you. Because they're going about creating so much despair on this planet, so when their version comes along, it's just going to be, “Whoa, I want some of that!”, you know? But they will be enslaved in a system. And then eventually, through periods of time, because there's other planetary bodies that are being set up like this one, because this process is successful. Okay? But there's other beings who have manifested themselves as planetary bodies, sacrificing themselves just like the Divine Mother did who led by example. And they will facilitate incarnational experiences for cycles to birth more planetary races of Christed beings. So, while we have got one going on here, the journey does not end. It will continue and continue and continue to happen.

[Inaudible question from audience regarding people going through the “doorways” and people perishing in the Earth changes]

[GK] The ones that perish in the Earth changes will go back into the cycle of birth, death and reincarnation as already is happening, here now. And they will either go back home to their galactic family or they will be trapped—it depends on the journey. Each one's got an individual journey. Some might go back there for a while, and then what they will do, is they'll gravitate and incarnate onto one of those other planetary bodies which I am speaking of. And some people call it "New Earth" or whatever, you know? You will be taken to a New Earth or something like that. It's just something similar to this one, yeah.

[Inaudible question from audience regarding healing]

[GK] Yeah. I would say just do your best. Just trust in yourself. I know some really powerful healers. Their modalities of healing, I don't comprehend. Okay? I don't comprehend it but something inside of me just trusts; it just feels right. Okay? So like I said, when actually healing a person and you're asking permission to do the healing on the person, who is, of course, you know everyone should do that. Focus your intention here [the heart] when you do it, in that person. And when you bring the light, activate the light from the inside out. Because that's what we're doing—we're turning inside out. If I want to find peace and I'm feeling troubled, I'll sit down and I'll bring like this liquid golden light from in the center and I'll just fill up my body with it. And you can feel it pushing out all the things that need to be pushed out. We've all got attachments. I've still got some attachments happening. If I didn't I'd be shining a great light. That's the reality.

So we've all got stuff attached to us—still got lessons to learn—but you know, we're purging them. One by one they're coming out of our systems. And believe in yourself as a healer, trust in yourself as a healer and just think about it. Well, if you're healing and you're connecting to an "ascended master" and you're using that being's energy to do the healing, I would be thinking about that one. I'm not saying it's wrong, Okay? But I would be questioning that. So you might have a Soul contract with that being, and everything's good. But I know there are just so many impostors in this reality and around this realm at the moment. I mean, all you've got to do is read the channeled readings on the internet and you've got a St. Germaine saying this and a St. Germaine saying that. And you get all these different St. Germaine guys and no, you can feel straight away it's just all these impostors, all different beings, talking. You know? So who's the real one? How do you know? So trust in your heart.

[Inaudible audience question regarding external energies]

[GK] Yeah. Just focus on the Christ center of the being, the Christ center of that being. The seed—it's a fractal of the Sun out there. You've got a small one of those in here [the heart]. Everybody's got one. Okay? And focus on that. And just, when you look at it—like I could look at every person and I could see their Sun. It's sitting right here inside everybody. Everyone's got it—it's all shining. When I talk to people—ah, my friends will tell you this—I'm not just talking to your personality; I'm talking to the whole lot of you. I always look beyond the personality and the physical body. I look into the being. And I can see when entities are working through them, and manipulating them to give me a hard time as well. That's happened a lot in my life ... a lot! Yeah, you're nodding your head. Yeah. So many people have experienced that. They make your life hell. Relationships like with brothers or sisters or husbands and ex-wives and ex-husbands, and you name it, parents—whatever. You'd be surprised how they've been manipulated. Because if they have an issue with you which is that big [six inches], these beings will make it that big [three feet].

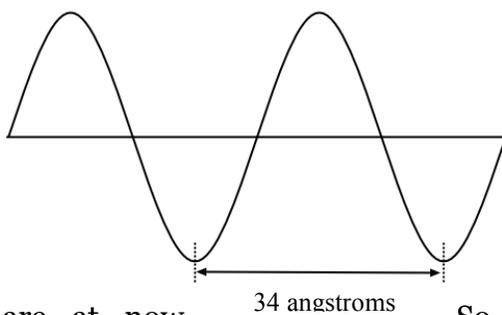

[Inaudible audience question regarding spreading the message]

[GK] Yeah. This talk that I'm doing here is basically spreading the message. Where it takes me from here, I don't know. At the moment, I feel it's going to grow eventually. People will start ...see, the more people increase their frequency and evolve, the more and more people start resonating with all this information. There's an incredible amount of people yeah ... there's a few people leaving now ... I just want to say to everybody, love, liberation, and fortitude. Okay? Thank you. Yeah. Thank you very much for coming....

I feel that my path is taking me somewhere because this is what I'm here to do. I went to Avalon recently and because I'm one of the 12 taking responsibility (and I was one of the Knights of the Round Table, for example), to do with that, what it means. What Excalibur means? The sword, Jesus was crucified on a cross and that is [draws image] really the sword as well ... as far as ... and galactic alignment. But, on one level it means, the sword in the stone, he was crucified on the mount, right? It's the sword in the stone. The sword represents knowledge. It represents the true knowledge from the Good Spirit, the truth, the revealing of the truth—the Apocalypse. So what you effectively do is you become the Sword. So by me speaking here today, and this going out all around the world on the internet, what I'm doing is I am ramming me, the Sword of truth into this matrix. I'm here to bring down this matrix. That's what I'm here to do. We all are. I'm just doing my bit to bring it down and that's to speak the logos.

[Inaudible audience question]

[GK] Everybody's doing their bit. Okay? If you're sweeping in a back hall in a hospital somewhere, you're doing your bit. No one's better than anybody else. Because the amount of energy, while you're thinking, while you're processing, while you're interacting with people, the amount of energy that's being anchored into the Earth plane from wherever it is you came, just your existence here is so profound. Would anybody object if I was to spend another five minutes explaining something? Would that be alright? Can you handle that? [Audience member says it will turn into ten] It will turn into 10. This one's a really good one. I wouldn't have suggested it if it wasn't. I think it's important to get this one on the video, that's why.

are at now.

So when you inject that into the DNA wavelength, you get 21.012—2012, 21st of December 2012, just a coincidence, right? So, let's now take the DNA again, after 2012. When I see it once we're in Unity and Oneness, back in Heaven, right? Let's inject the Christ vortex into that level of our DNA. The answer you get is 21st of March 2013. Now if you want to call that just a coincidence, you go right ahead. But to me, that's a slam dunk. That's when the planetary light body gets activated. 21st of March, 2013.

So I'll finish it there. I just want to say thank you to everybody for coming along. I want to wish you all the love, all the liberation and all the fortitude to each and every one of you. Thank you very much.
